

French-Canadian Folk Lore. The Loup Garou in Quebec Legends of Local Origin.

Lecture by Dr. Louis Frechette Delivered at McGill University.

Dr. Louis Frechette, O.M.G., post laureate of the French Academy, gave an interesting lecture on "Folk Lore of the Loup Garou" at McGill University.

The paper, which was couched in Dr. Frechette's classic language, dealt exhaustively with legends, which have originated in various countries of Europe, and especially of France.

INDIANS' APPEAL. Two Northern Tribesmen Complain of Their Treatment.

The following letter has been received by the Colonist: Sir: We, the undersigned, the humble representatives of three tribes of the Northwest Coast, have the honor to express through the columns of your paper our protest against the treatment of the tribesmen.

Such, for instance, was the headless priest of Lislet, which corresponded to a similar legend connected with the chapel of Bethlehem, near the town of Paris, where a priest was condemned by evidence to say a mass at midnight upon a certain night of the year until he was delivered.

THE LOUP GAROU IN QUEBEC. The loup-garou exercised almost universal sway over the provinces of the St. Lawrence valley in many other countries.

In Quebec the loup-garou was believed to exist up to a very recent period. Here, the popular belief of a loup-garou was that of a human being converted into an animal.

LEGENDS OF LOCAL ORIGIN. There were a large number of legends which originated in this province; some of them were connected with historical facts.

There were a large number of legends which originated in this province; some of them were connected with historical facts.

There were a large number of legends which originated in this province; some of them were connected with historical facts.

There were a large number of legends which originated in this province; some of them were connected with historical facts.

There were a large number of legends which originated in this province; some of them were connected with historical facts.

There were a large number of legends which originated in this province; some of them were connected with historical facts.

Neibergall Writes Home. A Vancouver Man Wounded at Paardeberg Tells His Story.

He Was Hit Twice But Managed to Escape With His Life.

From Our Own Correspondent. Vancouver, May 15.—The following letter, the latest to reach here from the front, has been received by Col. Worsnop from Private Neibergall, who enlisted here with the First Canadian Contingent:

No. 2 General Hospital. Our division, the 12th to leave, left Graspan on February 22nd at 4 a.m., and arrived at Ram Dam late in the afternoon. We were surrounded by the enemy on the 24th of February to Paardeberg. Next morning we started on our march to Waterfall Drift, where we arrived on the 27th of February.

NEW FISHERY REGULATIONS. Full Text of the Changes in the Law for British Columbia.

The following is the full text of the changes in the fishery regulations, a copy of which appeared in the Colonist on Sunday morning. The regulations came into force on Saturday.

1. Every applicant for a license shall be a British subject, resident in Canada, and a bona fide fisherman, and shall personally appear before the inspector of fisheries, or any authorized officer, before a license is issued to any applicant.

2. Each bona fide fisherman, being a British subject, shall be entitled to one fishing license; but such fishing license shall be valid for one fisherman only, whose name shall be inscribed on the license.

3. That clause 3 and 4 of the fisheries regulations, adopted by order-in-council of the 23rd of March, 1894, and the amendments thereto, shall be repealed, and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

4. That clause 4 of the fisheries regulations, adopted by order-in-council of the 23rd of March, 1894, and the amendments thereto, shall be repealed, and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

5. That clause 5 of the fisheries regulations, adopted by order-in-council of the 23rd of March, 1894, and the amendments thereto, shall be repealed, and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

6. That clause 6 of the fisheries regulations, adopted by order-in-council of the 23rd of March, 1894, and the amendments thereto, shall be repealed, and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

7. That clause 7 of the fisheries regulations, adopted by order-in-council of the 23rd of March, 1894, and the amendments thereto, shall be repealed, and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

8. That clause 8 of the fisheries regulations, adopted by order-in-council of the 23rd of March, 1894, and the amendments thereto, shall be repealed, and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

9. That clause 9 of the fisheries regulations, adopted by order-in-council of the 23rd of March, 1894, and the amendments thereto, shall be repealed, and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

10. That clause 10 of the fisheries regulations, adopted by order-in-council of the 23rd of March, 1894, and the amendments thereto, shall be repealed, and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

Incidents of the Boer War. A Clergyman's Testimony as to Burghers Horrible Cruelty.

Brutal Treatment of a Prisoner by His Captors—A Child's Letter.

The Rev. M. F. Crewdson writes from Durban, February 10th, 1900: From conversation with the men I found that one company of the Worcester, broken up into little bands of six and seven, were on a fortified hillside, kept at bay by a company of the Boers.

My readers will notice my phrase "Kaffirs and Boers," for I greatly regret to record on the testimony of at least a dozen of the men who were present—who had never seen one another since the fight, who had occupied different positions on the hillside, but who solemnly and unhesitatingly asserted that the Boers drove up the hill hundreds of times.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR. ENCOURAGE THE MINER.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

The Biggest Ever Held. Committees Completing the Arrangements for the Celebration.

Many Applications Received for Space in the Procession for Floats.

The prospects of the coming celebration of the Queen's Birthday eclipsing and previous events of the kind held in Victoria, grows brighter as the time draws near.

Another very successful meeting of the finance committee, who have not reported, and although the collection of the anti-slavery fund has not yet been completed, the committee members will be available. A committee consisting of Major Williams and Messrs. H. M. Grahame and A. J. Dallin were given a racing commission to solicit subscriptions from those who have not already subscribed to the secretary was instructed to require the chairman of the collecting committee, who have not reported, to complete as early a date as possible, to get their collections and hand in their books.

FOR ELECTION PURPOSES ONLY. English Papers Comment on Yankee Gush over the Boer Envoys.

London, May 16.—All the morning papers give long accounts of the reception of the Boer envoys in New York and Secretary Martineau editorially except the Daily Chronicle, and the Times, the former of which says: "To give a parallel instance, suppose that during the course of the Hispano-American war the Spaniards had asked England to intervene and had sent a deputation to Queen Victoria, would the Spaniards have been received with cheers and have been present with in freedom of the city of London?"

There were present L. G. G. the chair, Herschel-Cohen, A. Cross, James Thompson, C. J. Arthur Robertson and S. W. Prior and Earle at the receipt of the board's report on the matter of tide-gauge for the following letter was subject: Ottawa, 1st.

Sir: I am directed by the minister to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st inst., on the subject of the tide-gauge at Port Simpson, and to state that it is the aim of this office to improve the tide tables, as a means of rendering the navigation of the St. Lawrence more safe and profitable. Your recommendation to erect a tide-gauge at Port Simpson, or at the St. W. coast of Vancouver, will be later considered, but the matter of tide-gauge for the following letter was subject: Ottawa, 1st.

SHADES OF MONROE! Kruger May Yet Be a Candidate for United States Presidency.

New York, May 15.—According to the Herald, the commission composed of Fischer, Wessels and Wolmarans, representing the republics of the Transvaal and Orange Free State, which arrived here to-day, is empowered to take important action. The correspondent says: "I have the highest authority for making the statement that the commission are empowered to ask the United States to assume a protectorate over the republics, this protectorate to tend, if desired, toward eventual annexation as territories or states."

The Secretary of State Reitz, who is breaking down under the strain he is undergoing, voiced this national hope in these words: "We will maintain independence if we can. If we cannot, we will appeal to the American people to take us under their wing. Surely the declaration of independence is broad enough to span the ocean. Our last hope is that, having again and again carried our burden to the nearest shore, we may be permitted to deposit it at the foot of the Statue of Liberty, to the protection under the Stars and Stripes."

The steamer Maasdam, which sailed from Rotterdam twenty days ago, is a Boer surveyor on board, and is sighted off Fire Island at 8:25 a.m. to-day. The revenue cutter Hudson, with the surveyor on board, is also sighted off Fire Island. Former Judge George M. Van Hosen made the following address of welcome: "We are proud to have in our midst a Boer who sympathize with your country in its struggle for liberty and independence, and who wish to make the United States a more friendly neighbor to you personally and advantageous to the nation of which you are the representative. In the near future you shall extend to you a more formal reception, but on this occasion we simply say 'welcome.'"

When you make a mistake do not look for a scapegoat. Take the blame of it to yourself. Mistakes are lessons on wisdom. The past cannot be changed; but the future is in your power.

ONTARIO TAN BARK. Export Prohibited When Cut On Crown Lands.

Toronto, May 14.—The Ontario government has passed an order-in-council prohibiting the export of tan bark cut on crown lands in Ontario to be consumed in the country. In other words, important tan bark for any business in the presidential chair, but if they offer it to me, I suppose I'll be fool enough to accept it. And he was.

When you make a mistake do not look for a scapegoat. Take the blame of it to yourself. Mistakes are lessons on wisdom. The past cannot be changed; but the future is in your power.

Letters to the Editor. ENCOURAGE THE MINER.

The Biggest Ever Held. Committees Completing the Arrangements for the Celebration.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

FOR ELECTION PURPOSES ONLY. English Papers Comment on Yankee Gush over the Boer Envoys.

London, May 16.—All the morning papers give long accounts of the reception of the Boer envoys in New York and Secretary Martineau editorially except the Daily Chronicle, and the Times, the former of which says: "To give a parallel instance, suppose that during the course of the Hispano-American war the Spaniards had asked England to intervene and had sent a deputation to Queen Victoria, would the Spaniards have been received with cheers and have been present with in freedom of the city of London?"

There were present L. G. G. the chair, Herschel-Cohen, A. Cross, James Thompson, C. J. Arthur Robertson and S. W. Prior and Earle at the receipt of the board's report on the matter of tide-gauge for the following letter was subject: Ottawa, 1st.

Sir: I am directed by the minister to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st inst., on the subject of the tide-gauge at Port Simpson, and to state that it is the aim of this office to improve the tide tables, as a means of rendering the navigation of the St. Lawrence more safe and profitable. Your recommendation to erect a tide-gauge at Port Simpson, or at the St. W. coast of Vancouver, will be later considered, but the matter of tide-gauge for the following letter was subject: Ottawa, 1st.

SHADES OF MONROE! Kruger May Yet Be a Candidate for United States Presidency.

New York, May 15.—According to the Herald, the commission composed of Fischer, Wessels and Wolmarans, representing the republics of the Transvaal and Orange Free State, which arrived here to-day, is empowered to take important action. The correspondent says: "I have the highest authority for making the statement that the commission are empowered to ask the United States to assume a protectorate over the republics, this protectorate to tend, if desired, toward eventual annexation as territories or states."

The Secretary of State Reitz, who is breaking down under the strain he is undergoing, voiced this national hope in these words: "We will maintain independence if we can. If we cannot, we will appeal to the American people to take us under their wing. Surely the declaration of independence is broad enough to span the ocean. Our last hope is that, having again and again carried our burden to the nearest shore, we may be permitted to deposit it at the foot of the Statue of Liberty, to the protection under the Stars and Stripes."

The steamer Maasdam, which sailed from Rotterdam twenty days ago, is a Boer surveyor on board, and is sighted off Fire Island at 8:25 a.m. to-day. The revenue cutter Hudson, with the surveyor on board, is also sighted off Fire Island. Former Judge George M. Van Hosen made the following address of welcome: "We are proud to have in our midst a Boer who sympathize with your country in its struggle for liberty and independence, and who wish to make the United States a more friendly neighbor to you personally and advantageous to the nation of which you are the representative. In the near future you shall extend to you a more formal reception, but on this occasion we simply say 'welcome.'"

When you make a mistake do not look for a scapegoat. Take the blame of it to yourself. Mistakes are lessons on wisdom. The past cannot be changed; but the future is in your power.

ONTARIO TAN BARK. Export Prohibited When Cut On Crown Lands.

Toronto, May 14.—The Ontario government has passed an order-in-council prohibiting the export of tan bark cut on crown lands in Ontario to be consumed in the country. In other words, important tan bark for any business in the presidential chair, but if they offer it to me, I suppose I'll be fool enough to accept it. And he was.

When you make a mistake do not look for a scapegoat. Take the blame of it to yourself. Mistakes are lessons on wisdom. The past cannot be changed; but the future is in your power.

Letters to the Editor. ENCOURAGE THE MINER.

The Biggest Ever Held. Committees Completing the Arrangements for the Celebration.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

FOR ELECTION PURPOSES ONLY. English Papers Comment on Yankee Gush over the Boer Envoys.

London, May 16.—All the morning papers give long accounts of the reception of the Boer envoys in New York and Secretary Martineau editorially except the Daily Chronicle, and the Times, the former of which says: "To give a parallel instance, suppose that during the course of the Hispano-American war the Spaniards had asked England to intervene and had sent a deputation to Queen Victoria, would the Spaniards have been received with cheers and have been present with in freedom of the city of London?"

There were present L. G. G. the chair, Herschel-Cohen, A. Cross, James Thompson, C. J. Arthur Robertson and S. W. Prior and Earle at the receipt of the board's report on the matter of tide-gauge for the following letter was subject: Ottawa, 1st.

Sir: I am directed by the minister to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st inst., on the subject of the tide-gauge at Port Simpson, and to state that it is the aim of this office to improve the tide tables, as a means of rendering the navigation of the St. Lawrence more safe and profitable. Your recommendation to erect a tide-gauge at Port Simpson, or at the St. W. coast of Vancouver, will be later considered, but the matter of tide-gauge for the following letter was subject: Ottawa, 1st.

SHADES OF MONROE! Kruger May Yet Be a Candidate for United States Presidency.

New York, May 15.—According to the Herald, the commission composed of Fischer, Wessels and Wolmarans, representing the republics of the Transvaal and Orange Free State, which arrived here to-day, is empowered to take important action. The correspondent says: "I have the highest authority for making the statement that the commission are empowered to ask the United States to assume a protectorate over the republics, this protectorate to tend, if desired, toward eventual annexation as territories or states."

The Secretary of State Reitz, who is breaking down under the strain he is undergoing, voiced this national hope in these words: "We will maintain independence if we can. If we cannot, we will appeal to the American people to take us under their wing. Surely the declaration of independence is broad enough to span the ocean. Our last hope is that, having again and again carried our burden to the nearest shore, we may be permitted to deposit it at the foot of the Statue of Liberty, to the protection under the Stars and Stripes."

The steamer Maasdam, which sailed from Rotterdam twenty days ago, is a Boer surveyor on board, and is sighted off Fire Island at 8:25 a.m. to-day. The revenue cutter Hudson, with the surveyor on board, is also sighted off Fire Island. Former Judge George M. Van Hosen made the following address of welcome: "We are proud to have in our midst a Boer who sympathize with your country in its struggle for liberty and independence, and who wish to make the United States a more friendly neighbor to you personally and advantageous to the nation of which you are the representative. In the near future you shall extend to you a more formal reception, but on this occasion we simply say 'welcome.'"

When you make a mistake do not look for a scapegoat. Take the blame of it to yourself. Mistakes are lessons on wisdom. The past cannot be changed; but the future is in your power.

ONTARIO TAN BARK. Export Prohibited When Cut On Crown Lands.

Toronto, May 14.—The Ontario government has passed an order-in-council prohibiting the export of tan bark cut on crown lands in Ontario to be consumed in the country. In other words, important tan bark for any business in the presidential chair, but if they offer it to me, I suppose I'll be fool enough to accept it. And he was.

When you make a mistake do not look for a scapegoat. Take the blame of it to yourself. Mistakes are lessons on wisdom. The past cannot be changed; but the future is in your power.

Letters to the Editor. ENCOURAGE THE MINER.

The Biggest Ever Held. Committees Completing the Arrangements for the Celebration.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

FOR ELECTION PURPOSES ONLY. English Papers Comment on Yankee Gush over the Boer Envoys.

London, May 16.—All the morning papers give long accounts of the reception of the Boer envoys in New York and Secretary Martineau editorially except the Daily Chronicle, and the Times, the former of which says: "To give a parallel instance, suppose that during the course of the Hispano-American war the Spaniards had asked England to intervene and had sent a deputation to Queen Victoria, would the Spaniards have been received with cheers and have been present with in freedom of the city of London?"

There were present L. G. G. the chair, Herschel-Cohen, A. Cross, James Thompson, C. J. Arthur Robertson and S. W. Prior and Earle at the receipt of the board's report on the matter of tide-gauge for the following letter was subject: Ottawa, 1st.

Sir: I am directed by the minister to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st inst., on the subject of the tide-gauge at Port Simpson, and to state that it is the aim of this office to improve the tide tables, as a means of rendering the navigation of the St. Lawrence more safe and profitable. Your recommendation to erect a tide-gauge at Port Simpson, or at the St. W. coast of Vancouver, will be later considered, but the matter of tide-gauge for the following letter was subject: Ottawa, 1st.

SHADES OF MONROE! Kruger May Yet Be a Candidate for United States Presidency.

New York, May 15.—According to the Herald, the commission composed of Fischer, Wessels and Wolmarans, representing the republics of the Transvaal and Orange Free State, which arrived here to-day, is empowered to take important action. The correspondent says: "I have the highest authority for making the statement that the commission are empowered to ask the United States to assume a protectorate over the republics, this protectorate to tend, if desired, toward eventual annexation as territories or states."

The Secretary of State Reitz, who is breaking down under the strain he is undergoing, voiced this national hope in these words: "We will maintain independence if we can. If we cannot, we will appeal to the American people to take us under their wing. Surely the declaration of independence is broad enough to span the ocean. Our last hope is that, having again and again carried our burden to the nearest shore, we may be permitted to deposit it at the foot of the Statue of Liberty, to the protection under the Stars and Stripes."

The steamer Maasdam, which sailed from Rotterdam twenty days ago, is a Boer surveyor on board, and is sighted off Fire Island at 8:25 a.m. to-day. The revenue cutter Hudson, with the surveyor on board, is also sighted off Fire Island. Former Judge George M. Van Hosen made the following address of welcome: "We are proud to have in our midst a Boer who sympathize with your country in its struggle for liberty and independence, and who wish to make the United States a more friendly neighbor to you personally and advantageous to the nation of which you are the representative. In the near future you shall extend to you a more formal reception, but on this occasion we simply say 'welcome.'"

When you make a mistake do not look for a scapegoat. Take the blame of it to yourself. Mistakes are lessons on wisdom. The past cannot be changed; but the future is in your power.

ONTARIO TAN BARK. Export Prohibited When Cut On Crown Lands.

Toronto, May 14.—The Ontario government has passed an order-in-council prohibiting the export of tan bark cut on crown lands in Ontario to be consumed in the country. In other words, important tan bark for any business in the presidential chair, but if they offer it to me, I suppose I'll be fool enough to accept it. And he was.

When you make a mistake do not look for a scapegoat. Take the blame of it to yourself. Mistakes are lessons on wisdom. The past cannot be changed; but the future is in your power.

Letters to the Editor. ENCOURAGE THE MINER.

The Biggest Ever Held. Committees Completing the Arrangements for the Celebration.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

Encourage the miner. I am very pleased to see you constantly advocating means for attracting capital and money to this great province.

FOR ELECTION PURPOSES ONLY. English Papers Comment on Yankee Gush over the Boer Envoys.

London, May 16.—All the morning papers give long accounts of the reception of the Boer envoys in New York and Secretary Martineau editorially except the Daily Chronicle, and the Times, the former of which says: "To give a parallel instance, suppose that during the course of the Hispano-American war the Spaniards had asked England to intervene and had sent a deputation to Queen Victoria, would the Spaniards have been received with cheers and have been present with in freedom of the city of London?"

There were present L. G. G. the chair, Herschel-Cohen, A. Cross, James Thompson, C. J. Arthur Robertson and S. W. Prior and Earle at the receipt of the board's report on the matter of tide-gauge for the following letter was subject: Ottawa, 1st.

Sir: I am directed by the minister to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st inst., on the subject of the tide-gauge at Port Simpson, and to state that it is the aim of this office to improve the tide tables, as a means of rendering the navigation of the St. Lawrence more safe and profitable. Your recommendation to erect a tide-gauge at Port Simpson, or at the St. W. coast of Vancouver, will be later considered, but the matter of tide-gauge for the following letter was subject: Ottawa, 1st.

SHADES OF MONROE! Kruger May Yet Be a Candidate for United States Presidency.

New York, May 15.—According to the Herald, the commission composed of Fischer, Wessels and Wolmarans, representing the republics of the Transvaal and Orange Free State, which arrived here to-day, is empowered to take important action. The correspondent says: "I have the highest authority for making the statement that the commission are empowered to ask the United States to assume a protectorate over the republics, this protectorate to tend, if desired, toward eventual annexation as territories or states."

The Secretary of State Reitz, who is breaking down under the strain he is undergoing, voiced this national hope in these words: "We will maintain independence if we can. If we cannot, we will appeal to the American people to take us under their wing. Surely the declaration of independence is broad enough to span the ocean. Our last hope is that, having again and again carried our burden to the nearest shore, we may be permitted to deposit it at the foot of the Statue of Liberty, to the protection under the Stars and Stripes."

The steamer Maasdam, which sailed from Rotterdam twenty days ago, is a Boer surveyor on board, and is sighted off Fire Island at 8:25 a.m. to-day. The revenue cutter Hudson, with the surveyor on board, is also sighted off Fire Island. Former Judge George M. Van Hosen made the following address of welcome: "We are proud to have in our midst a Boer who sympathize with your country in its struggle for liberty and independence, and who wish to make the United States a more friendly neighbor to you personally and advantageous to the nation of which you are the representative. In the near future you shall extend to you a more formal reception, but on this occasion we simply say 'welcome.'"

When you make a mistake do not look for a scapegoat. Take the blame of it to yourself. Mistakes are lessons on wisdom. The past cannot be changed; but the future is in your power.

ONTARIO TAN BARK. Export Prohibited When Cut On Crown Lands.

Toronto, May 14.—The Ontario government has passed an order-in-council prohibiting the export of tan bark cut on crown lands in Ontario to be consumed in the country. In other words, important tan bark for any business in the presidential chair, but if they offer it to me, I suppose I'll be fool enough to accept it. And he was.

When you make a mistake do not look for a scapegoat. Take the blame of it to yourself. Mistakes are lessons on wisdom. The past cannot be changed; but the future is in your power.

Spring. Mining Laws to Be Discussed. Atlin to Receive Attention of the Board of Trade.

Some Important Business Discussed at Yesterday's Special Session. At a special meeting of the board of trade yesterday called for the purpose of arranging for a general meeting to discuss conditions in affecting the mining interest, matters came up of special importance in connection with the question of bonded freight and navigation. It was considered to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over. The importance of the matter was discussed at length, and it was decided to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over. The importance of the matter was discussed at length, and it was decided to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over.

Some Important Business Discussed at Yesterday's Special Session. At a special meeting of the board of trade yesterday called for the purpose of arranging for a general meeting to discuss conditions in affecting the mining interest, matters came up of special importance in connection with the question of bonded freight and navigation. It was considered to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over. The importance of the matter was discussed at length, and it was decided to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over.

Some Important Business Discussed at Yesterday's Special Session. At a special meeting of the board of trade yesterday called for the purpose of arranging for a general meeting to discuss conditions in affecting the mining interest, matters came up of special importance in connection with the question of bonded freight and navigation. It was considered to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over. The importance of the matter was discussed at length, and it was decided to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over.

Some Important Business Discussed at Yesterday's Special Session. At a special meeting of the board of trade yesterday called for the purpose of arranging for a general meeting to discuss conditions in affecting the mining interest, matters came up of special importance in connection with the question of bonded freight and navigation. It was considered to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over. The importance of the matter was discussed at length, and it was decided to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over.

Some Important Business Discussed at Yesterday's Special Session. At a special meeting of the board of trade yesterday called for the purpose of arranging for a general meeting to discuss conditions in affecting the mining interest, matters came up of special importance in connection with the question of bonded freight and navigation. It was considered to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over. The importance of the matter was discussed at length, and it was decided to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over.

Some Important Business Discussed at Yesterday's Special Session. At a special meeting of the board of trade yesterday called for the purpose of arranging for a general meeting to discuss conditions in affecting the mining interest, matters came up of special importance in connection with the question of bonded freight and navigation. It was considered to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over. The importance of the matter was discussed at length, and it was decided to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over.

Some Important Business Discussed at Yesterday's Special Session. At a special meeting of the board of trade yesterday called for the purpose of arranging for a general meeting to discuss conditions in affecting the mining interest, matters came up of special importance in connection with the question of bonded freight and navigation. It was considered to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over. The importance of the matter was discussed at length, and it was decided to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over.

Some Important Business Discussed at Yesterday's Special Session. At a special meeting of the board of trade yesterday called for the purpose of arranging for a general meeting to discuss conditions in affecting the mining interest, matters came up of special importance in connection with the question of bonded freight and navigation. It was considered to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over. The importance of the matter was discussed at length, and it was decided to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over.

Some Important Business Discussed at Yesterday's Special Session. At a special meeting of the board of trade yesterday called for the purpose of arranging for a general meeting to discuss conditions in affecting the mining interest, matters came up of special importance in connection with the question of bonded freight and navigation. It was considered to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over. The importance of the matter was discussed at length, and it was decided to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over.

Some Important Business Discussed at Yesterday's Special Session. At a special meeting of the board of trade yesterday called for the purpose of arranging for a general meeting to discuss conditions in affecting the mining interest, matters came up of special importance in connection with the question of bonded freight and navigation. It was considered to hold the matter in abeyance until after the bulk of the son's business is over.