Directors of P. R. J. Hospital

Business Transacted at the Regular Monthly Meeting Last Night.

Proposal From the Chemainus Hospital Re Nurses Favorably Received.

(From Wednesday's Daily.) (From Wednesday's Daily.)

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Provincial Royal Jubilee hospital was held last night at the hospital. R. S. Day, vice-president, occupied the chair, and there were present Messrs. Drury, Humphrey, Todd, Braverman, Shotbolt, Lewis, Davies, Helmcken, Wilson, Dr. Hasell and Capt. J. S. Gibson, president of the Chemainus hospital.

A letter was received from the Wemen's Auxiliary of the P. R. J. hospital and Daughters of Pity, inviting the president and directors to patronize the annual garden fete to be held this afternoon and evening in the Douglas gardens.

The invitation was accepted with weeks leave of absence was Two weeks leave of absence was granted Dr. Hasell, from the 28th inst.

The Finance committee recommended payment of accounts amounting to $1, 639.14, and salaries, $824.74. The average per diem cost per patient during July was $1.92.

The report recommended that all goods or other outlay shall be requisitioned for and be approved by the House committee before an order for supply is granted.

This was referred to the House com-The report also recommended the payment of insurance premiums amounting

The report on proposed changes in the by-laws for the Nurses Training school was laid over for further consideration.

The wood contractor notified the board that he would have to increase the price.

After some discussion Capt. Gibson suggested that the Royal Jubilee hospital might furnish the medical superintendent of the Chemainus hospital with a list of the text books and examination papers used by its nurses, which would enable the Chemainus probationers to prepare themselves for examination. Then if it were agreed upon by the directors and Board of Examiners of the Jubilee hospital, the Chemainus hospital believe that the buried treasure is still on Cocco island, and, as I there is gold or silver of some sort on the island, but whether it is coin or not has to be uncovered many feet before being revealed to the eye; and some of the eye; and some of these bodies have proved very valuable. EFFECT OF GAELIC LEAGUE.

Revival of Interest in Irish Language and Practical Patriotism.

The work of the Gaelic League in Ire-and is beginning to show some effect, a special correspondent of the Morning leader, who is traveling in Ireland, re-orts:

Leader, who is traveling in Treland, reports:

Dublin, now really determined to live a national life in the healthiest sense, is doing many things thoroughly. In the evenings, in haunt after haunt, as I saw, the young people are being taught the trish language, history, etc., in the best modern style, and the result is "living" knowledge. The number of workers, ladles especially, many with university degrees, who give their services so zeal-ously and unassumingly. Is decidedly heartening. The language enthusiasm leads, too, to a great deal of practical patriotism on industrial and artistic lines. The Irish entertainments are becoming settled features of life. "Commercial stools are being organized in the big firms. My incidental glumpses of the really Irish stage showed that a new school of actors is arising. This struck me forcelly at the performance of a four-act play in Irish at the Rotunda, but it was still more evident at a rendering of Dr. Hyde's latest little drams in the openatir in Mr. George Moore's garden. (Mr. Moore himself also pays tribute to the revival by having a number of his stories, translated into Irish, significantly enough by a R. A. of Trinity College.) The Gaelic League, which has had the largest share in all this awakening, touches life at many points in Bublin. Some time ago its ohier effice occupied a modest position over a boot-shop, now it has large premises, and its work suggests several busy public departments under one system. Its Publication Committee looks back on a year's record of success at all points, a quarter of a million copies of Irish books and bookiets being issued, and most of them already sold. Its impetus to printing, art and bookbinding, is obvious to every one, but the impetus to energy, self-reliance and confidence is far greater. Ten years more of it would mean a social and intellectual revolution. It is vigorously, but not Indiscriminately, supported by two new Angio-Irish weeklies (with Irish departments); it has also two organs of its own. One of these weeklies, the Leader, specially identified with the Irish industrial revival, but standing for Irish ideas all along the line, has made a deal of history in less than two years. The other the United Irishman, looks more kindly on Angio-Irish writers, and has often admirable articles. We may also expect special developments in daily journalism in Dublin, representative of the new energy and breadth of the national idea.

GOLD FINDERS AND GOLD PINDING

One Promoter Has Not Lost Faith In Reliability of Instrument.

In the course of a few days the share-holders of the Cocos Island Improvement company will meet to decide the fate of the brigantine Blakeley as but two weeks were allowed the promoters in which to "turn around" in the way of liquidating the amounts due the members of the crew for wages, etc. Several scaled tenders for the purchase of the vessels have been received, and no doubt there will be sufficient money on hand to at least satisfy these primary demands. In conversation yesterday Mr. Justin Gilbert states that there could not be the slightest doubt that there was gold on Cocos Island. "Before the gold finding instrument is condemned, let them prove that there is no gold on the Island, and until that is done I shall believe in the efficacy of the finder.' It has been proven a thoroughly reliable instrument too often for me to lose faith in it until it is shown that no evold or has been proven a thoroughly reliable instrument too often for me to lose faith in it until it is shown that no gold exists on Cocos. Of course it may be placer gold or gold in quartz, but that there is gold there, there can be no doubt. Of course the people were looking for gold coin on the island, and were not satisfied when the instrument indicated the presence of gold and gold coin was not found. We brought away several samples of the sand from the islambles.

Groceries, Fell & Co.; meats, Lawrence Goodacre; drugs, Hall & Co.
A special committee presented an estimate of the cost of painting some of the buildings at $75. This was approved and the work ordered.

The report of the House committee was did not give even a frace of gold.

"Three of the crew made the instrument work correctly, and it gave each the same indications of gold. Independently the three tested in the same locality, and on each occasion exactly the same spot was indicated. Capt. Hackett himself tried the instrument, and it gave him the same results. Capt. Gibson, president of the Chemainus hospital, addressed the board on the subject of the graduation of nurses. He asked for information as to what steps the Chemainus hospital could adopt to enable it to grant diplomas to its nurses.

Arrangements for the Excursion to Nanaimo on Labor Day.

(From Thursday's Daily.) The meeting of the Trades and La oor council was well attended las night. In the absence of President Hanft, the vice-president, Geo. Green wood, occupied the chair. The credentials of Wm. McKay and James Maple ton, of the newly-formed Laborers' un-ion, were received; also the credentials of Samuel Whittaker for the Barbers' union, vice J. Monk.

The report of the organization commit-tee was to the effect that the Laborers' union was now on a good basis, and that it had affiliated with the council; that the ship-joiners were considering the ad-visability of going in with the house carpenters and giving up the idea of maintaining a union of their own. Plums Plentiful,

The principal changes in this week's quotation are an additional 5c. per 1b. in the price of Lipton's brands of hams and bacon, and 2c. and 3c. on the Canadian and American packs respectively. This is quite a jump, and the prospects are that they will go still higher. This is a result of the packers' combine, and is by them attributed to the short corn crop of last year, and the prospects of the same this year. The fruit market is now well supplied, the Island plums and apples being offered very freely. Local fruit growers report a shortage in the apple crop, but choice varieties sell for $1.25 per box, while plums are quoted at 3c. and 4c. per 1b. Eggs. too, have gone up another notch, and the Island article now commands 40c., while Eastern eggs are offered at 35c.

Good Fishing.—During the past few days quite a number of salmon have been caught by campers from Foul and the shores of Trial island, although a few were taken close to the kelp near Foul bay. The average weight of the salmon was from six to eight pounds.

Dredge Will Help.—The snag boat Sampson having been unable to remove the outer row of piles across James Bay, the dredge King Edward was put to work yesterday to remove the mud from around the piles, and when this is done it is thought that they will come up much easier. The dredge will dig a trench some 10 feet deep in front of the Belleville street shore to dredge a change thrown into the flats. The dredge is now equipped with longer spuds, so that satisfactorily.
