WORLD'S GREATEST KIDNEY REMEDY

"Fruit-a-tives" Have Proved Their Value In Thousands of Cases

WONDERFUL RECORD OF A WONDERFUL CURE

Only Remedy That Acts On All Three Of The Organs Responsible For The Formation Of Uric Acid In The Blood.

Many people do not realize that the Skin is one of the three great eliminators of waste matter from the body.
As a matter of fact, the Skin rids the system of more Urea (or waste matter) than the Kidneys. When there is Kidney Trouble, Pain In The Back and Acrid Urine, it may not be the fault of the kidneys at all, but be due to faulty Skin Action, or Constipation of the bowels.

"Fruit-a-tives" cures weak, sore, aching Kidneys, not only because it strengthens these organs but also because "Fruit-a-tives" opens the bowels, sweetens the stomach and stimulates the action of the skin.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Amsterdam, Oct. 8.—A telegram from Berlin says that the evening papers of the German capital announce that on the afternoon of October 6 the German torpedo boat destroyer S126 was sunk by a British submarine, and that nearly all the crew was saved.

The sinking of the German destroy-

GERMANS ARE PRESSING FORWARD

Report That They Have Occupied Ghent and are Bombarding Bruges.—Little News

Paris, Oct. 13.—Announcement is made here that the next great battle will probably be fought on Belgium soil. Reinforcements have been rushed to the allies left wing.

No news of war operations today except a rumor that Germans are bombarding Bruges.

Germans and Austrians claim victory over the Russians but that report is not confirmed.

London, Oct. 12.—The allies gain slightly and loose not at all in great battle.

The Germans have occupied Ghent. The taking of Antwerp provides for the future on the part of Germany is now the opinion of military men. The left wing of allies now extends almost to the coast, with Germans keeping pace with movement westward.

News from Russian frontier not so cheerful, with German and Austrian army on the offensive.

German submarines sunk Russian cruiser in Baltic.

Recruiting in England takes leap forward, and standard is lowered.

Lord Curzon says long war is ahead. "More than one Christmas will roll by before hostilities end."

BRITISH TROOPS ARE WONDERFUL

French Writer Describes Scenes in Trenches While Under Fire

Flury Lamotte, a French war correspondent, in the front lines with the British when the great battle of Charleroi began, "a fight that will remain inscribed in letters of blood on the scroll of history," describes the British soldier under fire as follows:

What impressed me above all were the coolness and dash of the British soldier. His utter indifference to danger and his general air of "Don't care" simply carried me away. At moments of critical danger I have seen him worrying as to when he was to get his cup of tea from his little travelling kitchen.

I shall never forget the admirable reply given by a little English soldier wounded in the hand whom I found sitting by the roadside outside Mons, wearing an air of consternation. I began to talk to him and asked him if his wound was hurting him. "It's not that," he said, with a doleful shake of his head, "but I'm blessed if I haven't been and lost my pipe in that last charge." I gave him mine and he was promptly comforted.

I asked another what he thought of the Germans, and he said: "They are like flies; the more you kill the more there seem to be." That was the extent of the impressions he had received during that awful fight, and he gave me his answer with a merry laugh, showing a glint of very white teeth. I saw others going under fire with a football attached to their knapsacks.

There is another thing which struck me enormously, and that is the humanity of the British soldier when the fighting is done. In battle he is superb. He puts into the fight all his energy, all his indomitable pluck. He deals terrible blows at enemy. But when the battle is done his first thought is of humanity. The British do not exult over the enemy's losses.

They try to snatch from death as many as possible of their enemies.
After the battle the men with whom they have just crossed blades are no longer enemies; they are, in their eyes, just poor wounded fellows. This solicitude, great-hearted as it is after hard fighting, will always redound to the honor of the British Army.

While the Germans burn undefended villages, massacre non-combatants, and finish the wounded—even their own—the British Army's first thought when the fighting is done is to save as many lives as possible.

No, with such soldiers beside us, we Allies have no reason to doubt the final crushing of the delirious hordes which press on towards Paris, mown down by our mitrailleuses and degraded by the incessant attacks of our troops, hoping to find at their goal a haven of refuge from their sufferings.

The Hague, Oct. 8.—Communication with Antwerp is interrupted. The city is known to be under a terrific bombardment from all sides. Following the refusal to acquiesce in the demand for the surrender of the city by the military authorities, the Germans, who previously had confined their fire to the encircling chain of forts, turned the guns on the city itself. They had given two hours' notice to the inhabitants to leave, and thousands flocked out in utter panic. The roads to the Dutch frontier are littered with household goods, clothing and personal belongings of every character, abandoned by the terrified Belgians in their mad rush to safety. The procession started orderly enough, but with the booming of the big guns panic followed to the crowd still near the city and they rushed madly ahead. Horses, wagons and automobiles were utilized for the flight, but there were many hundreds who had to walk many miles over roads ankle deep in mud and filth.

er was announced by the British Admiralty Wednesday, but the designation of the craft was not given. The 126 was built in 1904-5 and was 210 feet in length. She carried three four-pounders and three torpedo tubes.
Her crew was fifty men.

J. W. Copeland, of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and before the bottle was all used the boy's cold was gone. Is that not better, than to pay a five dollar doctor's bill? For sale by all dealers.

SHOULD WOMEN PAY?

From the sentimental point of view it sounds all very nice that a man should be only too glad to pay for the privilege of any given woman's society.
One runs the risk of seeming ungrateful in protesting against the male attitude in the matter; but conditions have changed and it is high time that this knotty point changed, too.

As things stand at present the social code has become very elastic. Boys and girls go about together to theatres and the river in a way unknown when the man-pay-for-it-all code was instituted. They are comradesly and an unselfish regard for the question of payments for expenses is still shirked.
Take any typical young couple not engaged, (and the same will apply to their elders, too) and either of whom is well off.

The girl so long as she is with the man, cannot suggest a taxi, however tired she is, nor tea, however thirsty nor anything else that costs money because she knows she will not be able to pay for it. If she were a youth she knows that the two of them would have a pleasant time, each paying for himself; but that is denied to her. She is not the unworried little thing of past generations; she knows well enough about what income her escort is probably earning; she knows the relax of money and how far it will go; and unless she belongs to the race of harpies she is certainly not going to trade WAR COST IS $55 PER SECOND

"This war is costing the country $55 per second day and night," said Sidney Webb, well known as a political economist, in a lecture today at the School of Economics and Political Science, of which he was the principal founder.
The war, Mr. Webb added, was equivalent to a species of economic earthquake, which was upsetting everything in a new light. Nobody could predict to what degree of good or evil the world would be changed by the war, the speaker said, but the change undoubtedly would be colossal.

Whether it is chivalry or male pride, or whether it may be, good or bad, which makes men cling to the frequently inconvenient privilege of paying for women, whatever circumstances may have thrown them together, it is more men than they used to, and the whole tendency of society is to amuse itself away from home rather than in those restful precincts where the butcher's book and the baker's bill cannot appear on the horizon of the male mind.

ANSWERED TO CALL
Probably no branch of the public service has answered the call for volunteers better than the employees of the Intercolonial Railway. From this week, no less than 149 men joined the first contingent, and more will volunteer with the second force of 22,000 men now about to be raised. As in the case of all other in the Dominion government service, they will have their salaries paid full during their absence — and their positions will be kept for them.

AWKWARD MISTAKE
(Chronicle, New Glasgow, N. S.) One of the willing packers at one of the depots where the Belgian relief goods are being boxed, created an awkward predicament for himself when he found, after a hard day's work, that he had packed own overcoat in one of the cases.
He did not care about the coat so much as some papers that were contained in the pockets. Five large cases were re-opened, and the contents examined before the missing coat was found.
