—Years ago when the Cornwallis Vancy Kansway was hrat taiked of there were plans and plans to make a line from Kingsport to Mindiston to connect with the Central Failway part of the system. We believe meetings were held and the rightor-way considered, but with the completion of the line to kentville and its purchase soon after by the D. A. R. the matter was dropped. Such questions, however, are prone to periodical outcreppings and when once seriously considered there is an eventual trutage even though long delays increase. —H. we miss the opportunity to recoon aright the habit that carries with it the most disastrous results to humanity. Strong arms claims every year an increasing number of victims, morthe tatal craving that almost invariably follows the careiess use of these drugs, but worse possibly than any is the eigarette habit, worse because it is not yet labelied as significantly as it should be, and is encouraged by open sale. If every package of cigarettes were branded with the skull and crossbones and plainly marked 'poison there would not be such a demand for the obnoxious nerve and mind destroying agents as now exists. It was stroying agents as now exists. It was but yesterday that we read of a strong man who had died of cigarette poisoning—smoked himself to death in a little less than live years. And such weak to hold them between the ten-thousand cases where eigarettes have poisoned and destroyed the nerves of the body that will be reported and lorgotten within six months. Many men and boys of course smoke cigar-ettes without being killed but no one of them ever escaped undurt from the habit, nor ever will while the analysis of the cigarette shows it to contain such a quantity of poison. The danger is fearfully common throughthoughtlessness, the people encourage this habit to a hold on their nervous systems then the few who represent the people must be true to their trust and display a danger signal that cannot be mistaken.

this wireless telegraphy business that is dispetting scepticism. Here we find the plain understandable dollars and cents talk accomplishing a work that no mere story of suggesting a contraction of the co no mere story of successitury expioited theory could do. When at Marcom heard in Newfoundland the message from over the ocean many believed that the days of the ocean cable were numbered but the great majority of even scientific men were doubtlal. Now when the discoverer of the system of-fers to make contracts with the government for ten cents a word for over the ocean messages the theory must be well reduced to a practicable business possibility. The cheapening of long distance messages will play havor with the business of the cable companies as their expensive plants can never be operated in competition with the wireless system, but it will make the world smaller by the freer and quicker distribution of news, and wireless telegraphy will go into history as one of the greatest scientific discoveries for the advance of cillilization. ernment for ten cents a word for ove for the advance of cililization
