The Musician's Choice

Lovers of music who have hitherto scorned talking-machines because of their wheezy, punch-and-judy sound, have given Berliner Gram-ophone a place of honor in their homes.

The Berliner Gram-ophone is made in Canada, so are the records, you don't have to pay duty on them.

E. BERLINER, 2315 St. Catherine St., MONTREAL.

Poetry. THE KING'S JESTER.

The royal feast was done; the king sought some new sport to banish care.

"No pity, Lord, could change the heart From red with wrong to white as wool."

"'Tis not by guilt the onward sweep Of truth and right, O Lord, we stay; 'Tis by our follies that so long We hold the truth from Heaven away."

"These clashing bells, still in the mire, These harsh, well-meaning hands we thrust Among the heart-strings of a friend The ill-timed truth we might have kept—"

"Our faults no tenderness should nudge, The chastening stripes must cleanse the soul; But for our blunders—oh, in shame Before the eyes of Heaven we fall."

"Earth bears no balm for mistake; Men crown the knave and scourge the fool; That did his will, but thou, O Lord, Be merciful to me, a fool!"

The room was hushed in silence rose The king, and sought his garden clock. "Be merciful to me, a fool!"

To him who, in the love of Nature, holds Communion with her visible forms, she speaks A various language; for his gayer thoughts, that with her beauty, and a glow of eloquence of gladness, and a gleam of hope, she speaks

Into his darker musing with a mild And healing sympathy, that steals away their sternness, ere they be aware.

—Wm. Cullen Bryant.

Select Literature. Uncle Stephen's Pat Calif.

"Where can we cut some falchups, Uncle Stephen? Uncle Stephen was getting in the last 'jug' as he called it, of the season's hay. His ruddy cheeks were glowing with the color of the season's hay.

"Get a 'jug'!" "Get a 'jug'!" "Get a 'jug'!"

"Oh, he wouldn't mind, I guess," said Sam confidently, "we won't pull him up but a little—'nough to open 'em."

"Let him go, Sam—just a little, you know," said Uncle Stephen, "but a little—'nough to open 'em."

"Stop him, Sam!" shouted Ham. "That's high enough!"

"Six dollars 'n' fifty cents, all told, 'n' a little, counting everything." "Two dollars 'n' fifty cents, counting everything, even ponies, to buy the dicker 'n' the horse."

"Stop him, Sam!" shouted Ham. "That's high enough!"

"I declare I'd rather wear the old coat, Uncle Stephen, than the new one."

"I feel a good deal as you do, Stephen, Uncle Stephen replied, and also the old coat."
