WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 20TH, 1903

It is now decided that there will be another session of the present Dominion parliament before dissolution, and March 10th is generally conceded as the date on which it will be called together.

The present session of the local legislature has been drifting along without anything transpiring to cause even a passing comment on any of the bills.

Our outside proceedings this week are devoted to the regulars of the Municipal Council, the annual session of which was concluded on Thursday.

The postponed meeting of this association will take place at Lawrence town on Thursday, January 21st, at 2 p. m.

President's annual address, discussion, report of Secretary, Treasurer, and report of executive committee.

Discussion of act relating to county associations, motion by R. W. Chipman, Secy. Agriculture, adoption of by-laws, etc., election of officers.

Address, W. Parker, Commercial vs Farm fertilizers. Discussion opened by E. K. Leonard and A. B. Parker.

Address, Rev. H. How, Education for Farmers. Discussion opened by John Hall and W. C. Healy.

Persons securing standard certificates at their railway station will be returned free.

The extremely low temperature that has prevailed throughout the present month has been the occasion of much comment.

RYMENEAL

JOHNSON-CORBETT. A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Wm. A. Corbett, of Williamsburg, on Tuesday evening, January 12th, when his eldest daughter, Annabel Gertrude, was united in marriage to Horace Johnson, of Karadale.

Rev. W. L. Archibald, of Lawrence town, officiating clergyman. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Mrs. Freeman Corbett, of Clarendon, the bride entered the parlor, which was handsomely decorated, and took their places on a large floral arch.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a dress of white silk with applique and chiffon trimmings and wore a bridal veil with a beautiful bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Miss Jennie, who was daintily dressed in white organdy over pink and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

After the ceremony and congratulations the guests were invited to the dining-room, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion, where supper was served to about seventy-five guests.

The following day Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were driven in W. C. Marshall's fine turnout to Lawrence town station, where amid showers of rice and good wishes they left on the D. A. R. train for Boston and New York.

To the Editor of the Monitor: Sir—In view of the approaching celebration of the centennial anniversary of the landing of De Monts, and the assured presence of the Admiral and his flagship, we propose to challenge their cricketers to a friendly game.
