

WILKES:—(Continued.)

Conversations; Trade of Company, p. 88-89.

Conduct of Company towards Settlers, p. 89.

Company opened up the country to settlement, &c., p. 89.

His Narrative; Cross-examination, p. 89-91.

Peale: Evidence of no value and inapplicable; speaks of Vancouver and Fort George, p. 92.

Remarks on foregoing evidence for United States, p. 92.

A'Hern, the only resident at Vancouver, and Love and Douthet the only occupants of land—and they 4 or 5 miles from Vancouver, p. 93.

Vancouver Register referred to, p. 93.

II.—CHAMPOEG, p. 93-94.

Buildings put at £3,000, and Land at £400, p. 93.

Land is worth more and Buildings less, p. 93.

Lowe: Land worth $10,000, up to 1856 p. 93-4, and Buildings $9,000 while in possession of Company, p. 94.

Buildings swept away in 1861, p. 94.

McKinlay: p. 94.

Testimony for United States, p. 94.

Euck, Lovejoy, Apperson, Barlow, p. 94.

Buck; Values Buildings at $3,000, and the others value them at $1,000 to $3,000, while there; lands valued at $50 the acre, and lots from $50 to $75, p. 94.

Ground on which Company claims for the Post as it was in 1860, p. 94.

III.—COWEEMAN, p. 95.

Valued at $2,433 in Memorial, p. 95.

Douglas, McDonald, Simmons, Mactavish. Huntington proves sale of Buildings, p. 95. Gardner, p. 103.

IV.—FORT GEORGE, p. 95.

Valued at $4,136,67 in Memorial, p. 95.

Douglas: proves list A, p. 95.

Mactavish: Buildings worth $4,000 in 1850, when taken by Major Hathaway, p. 95.