The Canadian Engineer, Toronto: The "Educational Review" is now publishing a valuable series of leaflets dealing with special features and epochs of Canadian history. Such writers as Sir John Bourinot, Prof. W. F. Ganong and Col. Cruikshank are contributors, and these leaflets will be a most useful means of educating people on many more or less obscure points of Canadian history.

Manitoba Free Press: * * * Contain articles as valuable as they are interesting on incidents in the early records of our country.

Canadian Journal of Fabrics: This means of presenting in a cheap and popular form phases of Canadian history not familiar to the ordinary reader cannot be too highly commended, and we trust Mr. Hay will be well encouraged in his good work.

Kingston (Ont.) Whig: Valuable material by foremost historians.

Quebec Mercury: No student of history should fail to secure these writings.

Weymouth (N. S.) Free Press: Worthy the attention of all lovers of historical literature.

Chatham (N. B.) World: Readable, educational and useful to preserve for reference.

Yarmouth Herald: Mr. Hay deserves the thanks of the Canadian public for the pains he has taken in compiling such historical and clever papers in such readable form.

New Glasgow (N. S.) Chronicle: An interesting collection of history and geography.

Orillia (Ont.) Packet: * * * Fully sustains our opinion as to their value for use in the schools throughout the Dominion.

Atlantic Weekly: The making of a priceless volume on the early history of our beloved country.

A. C. Casselman, Normal School, Toronto: Your notes are very valuable, and not of transitory value by any means. I am sure that the whole series will be readily sold within a few years to those who collect works on Canada. They contain articles that cannot be obtained anywhere else.

Rev. M. Harvey, St. John's, Nfld.: I cordially congratulate you on the excellent judgment and good taste with which you have made your selections. You are rendering an important public service, especially to the younger generation of readers, which I trust will be duly recognized.

Nelson, (B. C.) Miner: We do not know anything that will tend more to popularize Canadian history than those bright, clever papers, as interesting as they are novel.

Charlottetown Patriot: Will do much to popularize all that is inspiring in the early records of our country.

Halifax Presbyterian Witness: Brings vividly before the reader a past, of which, as a country, we need not be ashamed.

Campbellton (N. B.) Events: The series is well worth a good binding and prominent position on one's library shelf.

Toronto Canadian Historical Records: Mr. Hay has been fortunate in securing such scholarly and well informed contributors as Victor H. Paltsits, W. F. Ganong, Col. Cruikshank, Sir John Bourinot and others.

Montreal Gazette: What we said some time ago of the Old South Leaflets as affecting United States readers, is especially applicable to this experiment of Mr. Hay's as affecting students of our own annals. At a nominal cost (ten cents a number) one is favored with a veritable treasury of tidbits by our foremost historians, dealing authoritatively with what is most noteworthy in the records of the old regime and the new.

Halifax Herald: These papers have enough in them to interest intelligent pupils, to teach them something of the sources of history and about authorities, and to awaken the spirit of research.

Edmundton (N. W. T.) Bulletin: The articles are interesting and of great value from an educational point of view.

St. John Sun: Not only useful for the purpose designed, but contains historical studies of great general value.
