

more days, either in the hospice on the summit or in one of the shelter-houses, which are placed at much shorter intervals apart in the dangerous region.

THE "WILD SUN" SEEN FROM THE CHAPEL "IN DER BLEICHEN," SIMPLON ROAD.

It was in the middle of May, 1800, that Napoleon crossed the Great St. Bernard with his army. The hardships and dangers which the troops encountered were innumerable, and extraordinary