

6. How did the disciples feel when they saw this wonderful sight?
They were afraid.
7. Who spoke out of the sky?
God.
8. What did he tell them (and us) to do?
To listen to Jesus.

He whose face was like the sun,
 And his garments glistening white,
 He will lead us, every one,
 Through our darkness to his light.

HARRY'S EVENING PRAYER.

BY ANNA PIERPONT SIVITER.

When my eyes grow sleepy quite
 Mother whispers, "Dear, good-night.
 It is time for sleepy-heads
 All to seek their little beds."

Then down I kneel and softly pray,
 These sweet words I've been taught to say:
 Dear Lord, I lay me down to sleep,
 And pray that thou my soul will keep

Help me to-morrow to be good,
 To do and say the thing I should;
 Give me my food, and clothes to wear;
 Let me with all thy kindness share.

Teach me to happy be and glad;
 To help some other child that's sad;
 And some day let me live on high
 With thee, dear Lord, beyond the sky.