Free, Absolutely Free The Ladies' Journal for Three Months.

Every woman in the land should take THE LADIES' JOURNAL, which is edited by Miss J. H. Wetherald. We want you to see it, and become acquainted with its good and interesting qualities, and to that end will send you a three months' trial free. This is no catch penny scheme, as there are no conditions whatever attached to this offer. Simply send your full address plainly written out on a postal card and THE LADIES' JOURNAL will be sent you absolutely free—even of postage—for the next three months, in order to introduce it, as far as possible, into every home on the continent. THE LADIES' JOURNAL is a large, four column, 36 page monthly publication, containing something to interest every person in the household, although particularly devoted to the interests of the ladies. The latest fashions are carefully illustrated and described in detail, and all the departments are fully up to the times. Serial and short stories by the best authors, and tried household recipes are in every number. Send your address now; this offer will not remain open after our circulation reaches the figure we aim at. Address

It is for your advantage as well as ours that we have instituted a Special Autumn Sale. During this sale, as at all other times, we offer you only reasonable goods of the best standard makes. Our unparalleled low prices are made possible by immense purchases, under most favorable advantages. Read the quotations below, and remember that they are but samples of a thousand other lines, perhaps even more cheap and desirable.

Here are unequalled quotations in hardware, tinware and woodenware.—Strongly-made, well-riveted coal scuttle, beautifully painted and gold-banded, medium size, 10c.; large, 24c.; large, with funnel mouth, 32c. Splendid well-made copper bottom No. 8 boiler, 22c.; regular price $1.75. Copper bottom tea-kettles, 49c.; regular price $1. These are only fair samples of our great variety of tinware. In woodenware—Eddy's best tubs, three sizes, 55c, 64c, and 74c.; worth 75c, $1 and $1.25. An immense assortment of wooden bowls just in, ranging in price from 8c. up, according to size. But it is in clothes wringers that we can astonish you: $2.69 for a splendid Royal Canadian or Royal Dominion, fully warranted. Only $2.99 for one having every improvement and attachment, double-gear, with two press screws, etc.; easily worth $5.

As further samples of our great stock of home furnishings, notice these quotations:—A beautiful new style of window blind, best oil-linen finished, with harts horn spring roller, complete, 45c. A good 15c. hand lamp, worth 30c.; a good 20c. stand lamp, worth 50c. A lot of fine lamps for 89c., usually sold at $2. Only a few left of beautifully decorated parlor lamps; our price, $1.49, easily worth $3.50. Beautiful lines of choice soap; baby's own, 10c.; boxes with three cakes of sassafras, 10c.; gem bouquet 5c. cake, and beautiful castile 4c.

Never were there better bargains in the ornamental ware. Plush goods of unsurpassed beauty and variety. The finest brush, comb and mirror cases, $1.49, worth $3. Work-boxes, manicure sets, work cases, etc., for 50c. up to $18. All the newest styles in picture, autograph and scrap albums.

No end of toys and games. Halma, parchesi, go-bang, lousia, etc., etc., from 44c. up to 83c.; usually sold for from $1 to $1.50.
