

September, 1915. During the interval he has been mentioned in despatches several times, was wounded a year ago last September, was later promoted staff captain, and received the Distinguished Service Order last fall. A brother, Capt. Howard H. Burnham, who went to France the first year of the war as medical officer with the 2nd Brigade, C.F.A., was given the Italian Military Medal for Valour in May, 1917; and a sister, Miss Mary Burnham, is going overseas again shortly to resume her duties in a Canadian Convalescent Hospital for officers in the south of France.

Capt. Donald A. Warren, of Hamilton, who went to France with a casualty clearing station in November, 1915, has resigned his commission in the Royal Army Medical Corps, with which he had served ever since. Enlisting originally with the rank of lieutenant, he received his promotion while on active service, and was later attached as medical officer to the Royal Warwickshire Regiment. While with this unit, Capt. Warren was awarded the Military Cross for conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He continued to attend wounded for over an hour under heavy artillery fire and in full view of the enemy. Later he established an aid post, and carried on for forty-eight hours without rest under continuous fire. Capt. Warren holds two degrees from the University, where he took his M.A. in 1910, and graduated in medicine with class '12.

Col. Wallace A. Scott, B.A., '95, M.B., '98; F.R.C.S., '03, was a member of the medical school staff when he enlisted for overseas, and went to England as lieutenant-colonel with No. 2 General Hospital. Later he served as O.C. of No. 2 casualty clearing station, France, and at present is colonel and O.C. at Moore Barracks Hospital, England. He was previously mentioned in despatches and given the C.M.G. at New Year's.

Dr. William C. White, an M.B. of 1899, and an M.D. of 1901, who has been connected with the health service of the volunteer relief work in France, has been made chief of the Bureau of Tuberculosis of the American Red Cross in France. He was late of Pittsburg.

Two Varsity men who have been home on leave are leaving shortly for England. Capt. Jas. Dickson, a B.A. of University College in 1913, and a graduate in medicine in 1916, was with the R.A.M.C. in India and Mesopotamia and came home in January. Capt. C. J. Willoughby, a graduate of medicine in 1916, who was also with the R.A.M.C. in Mesopotamia, is the other graduate who is returning.

Capt. Eric K. Clarke, a son of Dean Clarke of the Faculty of Medicine, left recently for England, where he will be attached to No. 4 Canadian General Hospital at Basingstoke. He returned to Canada on leave
