

DON'T FORGET

THAT WE

Every Young Man

IN TORONTO,

HEARTY WELCOME

TO

OUR ROOMS.

COME!

ALABASTER BOXES OF HUMAN SYMPATHY.

DO not keep the alabaster boxes of your love and tenderness sealed up until your friends are dead. Fill their lives with sweetness. Speak approving, cheering words while their ears can hear them, and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier by them. The kind things you mean to say when they are gone, say before they go. The flowers you mean to send for their coffins, send to brighten and sweeten their homes before they leave them. If my friends have alabaster boxes laid away, full of fragrant perfumes of sympathy and affection, which they intend to break over my dead body, I would rather they would bring them out in my weary and troubled hours, and open them, that I may be refreshed and cheered by them while I need them. I would rather have a plain coffin without a flower, a funeral without a eulogy, than a life without the sweetness of love and sympathy. Let us learn to anoint our friends beforehand for their burial. Post-mortem kindness does not cheer the Burdened spirit. Flowers on the coffin cast no fragrance backward over the weary way.—Selected.

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them, who are of the household of faith.
Gal. vi. 10.
