readable face; to let the composition to be simple as possible; to let the words be spaced properly; to have the margins correctly laid out; to use as few italics in the text as possible; to avoid footnotes; to use a black ink; to have the proof properly read; to see that the impression was firm and solid; to see that the register was good and the color uniform; to avoid types with sharp hair lines; to keep away from under-inking with hard rollers, dry super-calendered paper, and any attempt to imitate lithography and copperplate.
The suggestions are extremely good and to the point.

THE JUNE MAGAZINES.

THE Century has the second of Prof.
Bryce's papers on South Africa.
This will interest Canadian readers.

Outing is a special bicycle number and comes at precisely the right time. It should sell all through the month.

The American Review of Reviews has a good deal to say about Alaska and the boundary question.

The Strand is a capital fiction number.
The opening story, "An Unwelcome Passenger," is by a Canadian, F. H. F.
Mercer.

The Canadian Magazine has several bright and breezy articles. Mr. Loring replies to Sir Charles Tupper, on Imperial defence. Mr. Howland writes on next year's Historical Exhibition.

The Westminster is Rev. J. A. Macdonald's new monthly. It is tastefully gotten up, with articles on home and religious topics, is nicely printed and illustrated, and independent in tone.

The May National Review contained Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper's article on the Manitoba school question.

A NEW LIFE OF GLADSTONE.

The Outlook Company has arranged with Mr. Justin McCarthy, the famous historian, novelist and political leader, to write for publication in The Outlook, a popular Life of the Right Hon. William E. Gladstone. Mr. McCarthy has had an intimate personal and political acquaintance with Mr. Gladstone for many years, and is peculiarly fitted to undertake this work. The personal and social sides of Mr. Gladstone's life will be thrown into strong relief. Mr. McCarthy's skill in graphic narrative and in imparting to history the attractive qualities that many readers look for in fiction only, are well illustrated in his book, "The History of Our Own Times." Few books of our generation have had a wider reading on either side of the Atlantic. The Outlook's Life of Gladstone will be profusely illustrated with portraits, reproductions of drawings, and other pictorial material gathered from many sources. It will form a principal feature of The Outlook's illustrated magazine numbers during 1897.
