CARTER MEDICINE CO. New York City.

MR. BLAINE'S BOYHOOD.

[From the Northwestern Chronicle, of St. Paul.] Mrs. Eliza Blaine Walker, wife of Major Walker, of Helens, Montana, and only surviving sister of Hon. James Gillespie Blaine, died in Baltimore on Wednesday last. She had been suffering from poor health for nearly a year, and was spending the winter in Baltimore under special medical treatment. A month ago her daughter, a Sister of Mercy. died in the Convent of Wilkesbarre, and the sorrow of this bereavement intensified her nalady and hastened her own demise. She died fortified with all the apiritual blessings of the Church, and is to be buried from the Cathedral, Most Rev. Archbishop Gibbons celebrating the Requiem Mass. Mrs. Walker was at one time a resident of St. Paul, while her husband, Major Walker, was United States Paymaster for the North-western Military Department. Mrs. Walker will be temembered by a great many of our civizers as a most estimable Christian woman, i loyal child of the Catholic Church, exropiary in the practice of all her duties, winning by her goodness of heart, her charity and her piety the esteem and love of di who knew her. While she resided in St. Paul, Mrs. M. Gillespie Blaine lived with her; they were both models in everything that was good and edifying. Mrs. Blaine died in St. Paul, having received the last sciaments from the minds of Rev. L. Caillet. May mother and daughter rest in peace.

It may not be amiss to state here the re-ligious history of the youth of Hon. James G. Blaine, as it was repeatedly given to us by his mother and his sister. His mother, Mrs. Blaine, had been always a devoted Catholic, and all the members of the Gillespie family. But she married a Protestant, and for many years after the marriage her hus band remained a Protestant. He even held to the maxim that wi ile his wife might teach the daughters as she wished, the sons, for his sake, should be left untrammeled to choose their own faith. The eldest, James G., was at an early age sent to a Protestant college, where he spent several years, and where his religious opinions were formed. Mrs. Blaine never ceased to regret the course her son was being made to take; but her protests were unavailing, as her husband persisted in his own determination. Young James had, indeed, been haptized in his infancy, but he never made his First Communion, or received my other macrament, and in view of his cotlego influences he cannot be said to have ever been wilfully recreant to the faith of his haptism.; Him brothers never left home to receive their education, and they were always as they are to day, Catholics. The father at a later day became a convert and lived after-wards an exemplary Catholic. We recall those facts simply that we may give a correct and authentic statement of the sase, as to has eften been so presented in different and untruthful colorings. James G. Blaine assays as meet tannful son and I roth r; as mother and eister were devotedly at wheel to him, and were constantly receiving from him marks of truest affection. They sever blamer bim for not being a Catholic, s they materstood too well the circumstances and which be had been placed, and which cere so it is as to proclude him from all 'atholic irjanues Good Cuholics will, as to meta e aca saveraid, not be too willing a beane inside feedman, as to pany for his conversion.

CURTOSELLES OF MISNOMER.

Sted had I not block lead at all, but a screpented of earlier and a small quantity of ron Breziaan grass never grow in Brez l, and the not gross; it is nothing but strip a pane had. Burguedy pitch is not pitch and does not come from Burgardy; the zenter part is residented and oil. Catgut is made from the contains of sheep. Cuttle-hone is not home, but a kent of chalk once enclosed in the tossit remains of extinct specimens of cuttie fish. Girman silver was not invented in Germany and does not contain one particle Cleopatra's needle was not by the Egyptian queen, nor in her honor. Pompey's Pidar had no historical connection with Fompey in any way. Scaling wax does not contain a particle of wax, but is composed f Venice turpentine, shellar and cinnabar. The tuberose is no rise, but a species of p lyanth. The strawberry is no berry, but only a smarrient recepture. Turkish baths did not originste in Turkey and are not baths, but heated chambers. Whalebone is not hone, and is said not to possess a singly proprty of bone.

CARDINAL GUIBERT DYING.

PARIS, April 8.—Cr dinal Guibert, Archbishop of this city, is dying. He has been seriously ill for some time back, and his physicians now abandon all hopes of his recovery. His Eminesce is eighty-three years of age, and became Archhishop of Paris in July, 1871, on the nomination of President Thiers, in succession to the martyred Mgr. Darboy. He was created a Cardmal by Pope Pius IX. in December, 1873.

LADY WOLSELEY GOING TO EGYPT. LONDON April 8 .- Another NIIe relief expedition is fitting out here. It will be command-or by Lady Wolsel y and will consist of herself and a idv's maid. The special object of this extection is the rescue of General Lord Wolsecy. The expedition will meet Gen rat. Wolse-y at Cairo next. Monday, the 13th inst., and will start from Cairo the next day to escort the General and his staff to Suakim. No serious attacks by the rebeis a e expected during the progress of the convoy.

DISAPPROVAL OF GEN. GRAHAM'S PLAN OF OPERATIONS.

LONDON, April 8.—The public is daily be-oming in re dissatisfied with the conduct of the operations around Sunkin. General Mc Neill has hitherto done duty as the scapegoat for the Brush blunders, but General Graham is now getting severely criticized also. The War Office has, therefore, decided to send Lord Walseley to Suakim to conduct the future mi itary operations in that vicinity. He is expected towned up the campai mina blaze of glory, which will not only be a set-off to his fiasco on the Nile, but will enable the British to evacuate the Soudan with flying colors.

THE BARTHOLDI STATUE. PARIS, April 8.—The frigate Isere leaves Reuen for New York about the end of April with Bartholdi's statue.

A PUBLISHER'S VIEWS ON FRANCE. Her Von Bertouch has published a book favoring the partition of France in the historic hasis; the west retaining its independence as a monarchy, the east being formed into a middle kingdom; Champagne heing annexed to Germany, and Italy regaining Nice and Savoy.

GOOD RELATIONS RESTORED. VIRNNA, April 8 .- Good relations have been restored between England and Turkey.

LONDON, April 7.-A despatch from Larnica, Cyprus, reports a serious riot growing out of a wanton attack upon a religious procession of the Greek church. While the procession was passing the English club house a party of loungers began to jeer and hoot at the priests. Finally they attacked the pro-cessionists with stones, and the troops had to be called out before the disturbance was quieted.
