ET ON THE LISTS.

DINTS FOR THE NEW VOTERS.

ow to Secure Your Franchise Under the Dominion Act.

The attention of every male citizen over 21 ears is particularly directed to the annexed atutory qualification of voters under the sw Act, in a condensed and more compreensive form, by which every voter may be iscovered and enrolled.

THO ARE ENTITLED TO VOTE AND TO BE PLACED ON THE VOTERS' LIST.

All male persons of the full age of 21 years, he are British subjects by birth or naturalition, possessing some of the following naliù ations : —

IN CITIES OR TOWNS.

OWNER. Every owner of real property of the value i $300 in cities, and $200 in towns, having he same in his own right or in the right of TENANTS.

Every person who has been a tenant of eal property for one year previous to the lat lanuary, ISS6, and paying rent therefor as ollows, viz.:-

Two dollars per month,

Six dollars per quarter, Twelve dollars per half year, or Twenty dollars per annum.

And if these sums are continuously paid, a change of tenancy from one property to another within the same electoral district does not disqualify him from being registered as a voter, if such change of tenancy is with-out intermission; and if in any case the rent ie not stated, and the fact is that the property is of the value of $300 in cities and $200 in towns, he is entitled to be registered as a voter.

OCCUPANT.

Every person who bas been the bona fide occupant in his own right, or in the right of his wife, in any other than as owner or tenant of real property, whether such occupation be under a license of occupation or agreement to purchase from the Crown, or from any other person or corporation, in cities to the value of $300 and in towns to the value of $200, and who has been occupying it for one year previous to the lat January, 1886, is entitled to be registered as a voter.

INCOME VOTER.

Every person who has been a resident within the city or town for one year previous to the let day of January, 1886, and has an income from his earnings or from some trade, calling, office, or profession, or from some investment in Canada, of not less than $300 annually, is entitled to be registered as a voter.

OWNER'S SON.

Sons of any owner of real property not otherwise entitled to vote, who have lived npon such property with their father, grandfather, stepfather or father-in-law, while living, and after their death, respectively, as the case may be according to seniority, as the value of the real property will qualify at the rate of for cities $300 and for towns $200, for each, provided always the occasional absence for not more than in all six months in the year shall not disqualify such son as a the year shall not disqualify such son as a voter, and provided, also, that time spent as a student, fishermen or mariner, or in any educational institution, shall be considered as spent at home.

FISHERMEN.

Every fisherman, who is the owner of real property and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle, which to him together are of the value of $150, shall be entitled to be registered as a voter.

THE LODGER FRANCHISE.

Among the franchises created by the Dominion Act is the following :-Any male British subject of 21 years of age

Is the tenant of any real properly within any city or town, under a lease, at a monthly rent of $2, a quarterly rent of $6, a halfyearly rent of $12, or a yearly rent of $20; who has been in possession, and has really paid such rent for at least a year before 1st January, 1886.

Or is the tenant of any real property assessed at $300 in cities, at $200 in towns, and 3150 in townships and villages.

The interpretation clause of the Act defines

"real property" as follows:—
Real property means a lot or portion of a lot, or other portion or sub division of real property, or a house, store, office, or building of any description whatsoever, or ANY PORTION THEREOF, situate upon real property and forming part thereof.

This enfranchises persons occupying a single room, or part of a single room, or part of an office, provided the rent paid for the same amounts to the above named sums.

The general election campaign is being fought now, and it will be decided within the next two weeks.

The revising barristers are now preparing their preliminary lists.

The lists are to be printed and posted before March 1st. No date is fixed by law before which notices of application to be entered on the lists must be sent to the revising officer or his clerk. The revising officers must take their names from the old voters' lists and the assessments.

If you are qualified and are not on the assessment roll you, or some one on your behalf, must send to the revising officer or his clerk IMMEDIATELY a declaration of qualifica-

On the revising officer receiving such declaration he will put your name on the preliminary list.

If you neglect this simple duty you cannot get on the list without going to the trouble and expense of attending the Revision Court and proving your claim.

Hence the supreme importance of getting your name on the preliminary list. If you wish to become a voter you must yourself do the work. Make out your declaration and send it to the revising officer. Otherwise to a certainty you will be deprived of your vote.

ANTI CHRISTIANITY IN PARIS. OFFICIALS WHO CAN TAKE NO ACCOUNT OF RELIGIOUS SERVICES IN BURIALS.

PARIS, Feb. 2 .- It is rather remarkable that the funeral services of the unfortunate Prefect, M. Barreme, should have been permitted to take place in the Cathedral of Evreux, for the zeal of the actual authorities in France against Christianity often vents itself after the grave. Only the other day, while I was in Paris, a foreign lady resident there had some experience of this in connection with a benevolent effort which she made to secure Christian burish for the remains of a poor then with their mother, stepmother or mother-in-law, for one year previous to the late day of January, 1886, are entitled to be registered as voters as the sons of an owner in the following order, that is to say:—First, the sons, grandsons, stepsons or sons in-law, as the case may be according to seniority, as pital to ascertain what should be done in order to have the girl buried with the rices of the

There she was informed that the bodies of the unclaimed dead are invariably seut at once directed to drive to the Maine of the Arcan-dissement, where the officials kindly per-mitted her to pay for a grave for the girl and for a coffin, and, after inquiring whether the funeral was to be a civil or a religious one, gave her the address of the nearest Catholic Church. She found the church, saw the priest, made all necessary arrangements with him, paid for the mass to be performed, and then, returning to the hospital, she was told that the body would be ready for removal at a certain hour the next morning. The religious ceremony was there-upon fixed for a quarter of an hour later,

At the time appointed the next day my informant drove to the Church of St. Francis At the time appointed and the formant drove to the Church of St. Francis Xavier. She found the priest prepared, and there with him and a few casual attendants awaited the body. Half an hour having passed she became uneasy, and drove to the hospital, there to be informed very coolly that "as madame had not been present when the bodies were taken out of the amphitheatre, the body she expected had been taken to the cemetery, and there interred." When she remonstrated against this proceeding the functuary in charge oalmly said that "No mention could be made or account taken of religious ceremonies in churches by the administration of the hospitals," and to this the Maire, in whose office, remember, all the arrangements had been made, find the money paid for the interment, quietly find the money paid for the interment, quietly added that "he was strictly forbidden to give mey orders respecting services in churches.

No word of all this had been said to the lady who was taking all this pains for the peace of the soul of a poor and friendless girl, while she was making her arrangements. She was de-liberately defrauded of her pious purpose to swell the local propaganda of paganism by adding another to the list of "civil burials" recorded as expressing the anti-Christian senti-ment of emancipated Paris and the progress of ree thought.

THE POLES' EXPULSION.

ENCITEMENT IN GERMANY AND AUSTRIA-BIS-MARCK CONGRATULATED AND DENOUNCED.

BERLIN, Feb. 2 -- The Polish policy of Prince Bismarck, as announced in the Landtag, has produced general excitement through out Germany and Austria. The immense Lubrienski estate, containing about 200,000 acres, one of the largest estates in Prussia, is offered for sale next April as a result of the expulsion of the Poles. The inhabitants of the estate have for years been mainly Polish, and the edict of expulsion, by forcibly re moving the tenantry and depriving the estate of its revenues, has thrown it upon the market. Addresses of sympathy have been sent to Bismarck by Germans in every part of the empire, and many have already reached him from people in Austria, especially from Bohemia. The National Club of the Austrian Reichsrath, headed by a German national deputy, has also signed a similar memorial of congratulation. The Austrian-German Club at Vienna, however, unanimously denounced the German chancel lor's treatment of the Poles. VIENNA, Feb. 2.—It is rumored that two Polish members of the Austrian Cabinet intend to resign. If they remain in office they are certain to be strongly pressed by Polish deputies to induce Austria to formally protest against Bismarck's action against the Poles of Posen.

EPPS'S COCOA.

BREAKFAST. BREAKFAST.

"Ily a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocos, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately navored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hendereds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame." Civil Service Gasette.
