

2. Each Contracting Party grants to the designated airline of the other Contracting Party the right of free transfer of funds obtained by each in the normal course of its operations on the basis of the exchange rates applicable for current payments on the day of payment and shall be subject only to the respective foreign currency regulations applicable to all countries in like circumstances. The transfer of funds shall not be subject to any charges except those normally collected by banks for such operations.

ARTICLE XIV

Income or profits from the operation of an aircraft in international traffic derived by the designated airline of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party, shall be exempt from any income tax and all other taxes on profits imposed by that other Contracting Party.

ARTICLE XV

The designated airline of each Contracting Party shall be granted the right to station representatives and staff required for the operation of the agreed services in the territory of the other Contracting Party. Such representatives and staff shall be nationals of Canada and Poland and their location and number shall be agreed upon through consultations between the designated airlines of both Contracting Parties and shall be subject to the approval of the aeronautical authorities of both Contracting Parties. Such representatives and staff shall observe the laws and regulations in force of the other Contracting Party.

ARTICLE XVI

1. The crew members of an aircraft of the designated airline of either Contracting Party flying on the specified route shall be nationals of their countries. In case the designated airline of one Contracting Party deems it desirable to utilize crew members being nationals of third countries for the operation of agreed services, it can do so after approval of the aeronautical authorities of the other Contracting Party.

2. The crews of an aircraft of the designated airline of one Contracting Party shall, on the basis of reciprocity and as scheduling of the agreed services requires, be permitted temporary sojourn in the territory of the other Contracting Party.

ARTICLE XVII

The provisions set out in Articles VI, VII, VIII, XI, XIII, XIV and XVI of this Agreement shall be applicable also to charter and other non-scheduled flights operated by an airline of one Contracting Party into or from the territory of the other Contracting Party and to the airline operating such flights.

ARTICLE XVIII

In a spirit of close cooperation, the aeronautical authorities of the Contracting Parties shall consult each other from time to time with a view to ensuring the implementation of, and satisfactory compliance with, the provisions of this Agreement and its Annex.
