

will find that it is very competent management. Competent, realistic and attuned to the challenges of the world we are all going to be living in for the rest of this century.

Canada is now open for business.

Thank you.