

to be admitted to study medicine in this Province.

Students intending to enter this course by senior matriculation or claiming credit for one year of work in other Universities should note carefully that at least one adequate successful year in both Physics and Inorganic Chemistry is required for admission into the second year. First Physics and First Biology cannot be taken at present in the same year.

April 16, 1926.