

SEC. 6.—No candidate for membership, who <sup>Re-proposal</sup> has been rejected, shall be eligible for re-proposal for three months after such rejection.

SEC. 7.—No person shall be considered a <sup>Date of</sup> member, or entitled to any of the privileges of <sup>membership</sup> the Association, until he has paid the entrance <sup>Election</sup> fee, and subscribed to the Constitution and By-Laws, and failing to comply with this article of the Constitution within one month after date of his notice of election, such election shall be null and void.

ARTICLE IV.—OFFICERS.

SEC. 1.—The officers of the Association shall <sup>Officers.</sup> consist of a President, Vice-President, Recording <sup>Summary of</sup> Secretary, Treasurer, Financial Secretary, and Assistant Recording Secretary; all of whom <sup>Election of.</sup> shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting.

SEC. 2.—If only one candidate is nominated <sup>Only one</sup> for any office, such candidate shall be declared <sup>nomination</sup> elected by acclamation.

SEC. 3.—No nomination shall be accepted unless the person nominated shall have signified his willingness to accept the office for which he is named. <sup>Nominat'n.</sup>

SEC. 4.—A majority of the legal votes cast <sup>Mode of</sup> shall be necessary for election; the balloting <sup>election.</sup> being continued until such result is obtained in favor of one candidate, and after each ballot the name of the candidate having the lowest number of votes shall be withdrawn.

SEC. 5.—All vacancies in office shall be immediately filled in the manner provided for the annual elections; such election to hold good until the next general election of officers. <sup>Vacancies.</sup>