

for a reply, if necessary, and not oftener, except by permission of the Presiding Officer. The Presiding Officer shall have the same privilege as any other member of discussing any subject, but before doing so shall call upon any officer present to occupy the chair while he is speaking. The leaders of the debate or mover of a motion shall have the privilege of closing the debate, but shall not be allowed more than ten minutes in so doing.

7. The Presiding Officer or any member may call a brother to order while speaking, and in such case the debate shall be forthwith suspended, and the brother so called to order shall not proceed until the point of order thus raised shall have been decided, nor speak upon such point of order unless it be to make necessary explanation or appeal from the decision of the chair.

8. In all cases wherever a member may appeal from the decision of the chair, he shall use the following words, and none other, unless it be for necessary explanation:—"Mr. President, I respectfully ap-
