

	PAGE
Girls' Opinions.—On the Track again.—“Where are we now?”—The old Tote Road.—Burnt Forests.—Along Lake Superior.—Beauties of the Scenery.—Port Arthur and Thunder Bay.—Fort William.—The Keewatin District.—Timber, Gold and Silver, Game.—The Lake of the Woods.—We enter Manitoba.—The Red River.—Arrival at Winnipeg .	28

CHAPTER IV.

THE CITY OF WINNIPEG.

Our Arrival.—First Impressions.—Genial Welcomes.—We are Invited to Invest.—“Lots.”—“The Boom.”—Local Politics.—The Manitoba Club.—The Mount Family, their Story and Difficulties.—English Settlers in Manitoba.—Disappointment.—The Boarding-house in Winnipeg.—“This will not do for us.”—Tom's Anticipations.—My Sage Advice.—An Excursion to Stony Mountain.—Our “rig.”—“Call that a Mountain!”—Penitentiary and Convicts.—The Last Herd of Buffalo in Canada.—People and Shops in Winnipeg.—St. Boniface, and the Roman Catholic Cathedral.—I leave the Selbys and go on West .	42
--	----

CHAPTER V.

ACROSS THE WHEAT COUNTRY.

Old Shipmates.—An Immigrant Family.—“Innocents Abroad.”—Portage-la-Prairie.—The “Beautiful Pains.”—A Settler from Devon.—“Wouldn't I like to go Home again!”—Farmers' Prospects.—A New and Go-ahead Prairie Town.—I reach Brondview.—How they welcome Travellers in Canada.—The Dining Hall.—Poor Prospects of Supper.—“It's Real Mean!”—The Servant Difficulty.—Interviewing “the Ladies.”—Elegance and Hauteur.—Pleading for Food.—Softening the “Prairie Flower.”—Pie!—On Charlie's Trail.—Rough Accommodation.—Looking for Meadows's Farm.—A queer Inhabitant.—Found at Last.—Bluffs, Sleughs, Shacks, and Dug-outs.—Mendows's Home.—My Friend's Experiences of the N.W.T.—Cattle versus Wheat.—A Drive in an Ox-cart.—The Town of Brondview.—The Liquor Prohibition Law.—New Acquaintances.—Bruce.—Wild Beasts and Birds.—Some Skunk Stories.—Insects and Flowers .	54
---	----

CHAPTER VI.

LIFE IN THE NOR'-WEST.

Mendows's Neighbours.—A Sunday Visitor.—Friend Brown's Loquacity.—Canadian Habits.—Miserable System of keeping Cattle.—Shiftless Ways.—A Prairie Walk.—Fire-guards.—Hardy and Donald “At Home.”—The House.—Charlie's Cookery.—Prospects.—A Chat about the Love Affair.—Despondency.—Cattle versus Wheat.—Bad Seasons.—Nothing like Cows.—I enjoy my Life.—Want of Society.—Apathy of the Settlers.—A Drive on a “Buckboard.”—Jovial Bruce.—His comfortable Home.—Why the Neighbours called him a “Crank.”—The English Style and the
--