

ferred to Doctors of Sorbonne and chief people of Canada, 326.
 Braun, Father, sermon on Church and State, 166.
 Brébeuf, Father, miraculous efficacy of his bones, 180.
 Bréda, treaty of, secured peace between English and French colonies, 199.
 Brésoles, a nun of sisterhood of St. Joseph, 46; piety and culinary skill, 51.
 Brigeac, Claude de, tortured to death by Iroquois, 57, 58.
 Bullion, Madame de, "the unknown benefactress," 45.
 Busy season, the 386.

C.

Canada, condition of, in 1660-1661, 63, 64; domestic qu...ls in, 83, 84; in state of transition, 106, 107; government vested in council of nine, 135; dawn of a better day, 179.
 Canadians, pride and sloth, chief faults of, 257, 258; physical characteristics of, 378; conflicting estimates of, 388.
 Carheil, a Jesuit priest, cited, 315, 319-322; letter of, touching missions, 427-432.
 Carignan-Salières, first regiment of regular troops sent to America by French government, 181; its history, 181, 182 and note; its members charged and made colonists, 218.
 Carion, a lieutenant, assaults a brother officer, 371, 372.
 Casgrain, Abbé, cited, 294 note.
 Catalogne, report of, on condition of Canada, 254 note; report of, 297; mémoire of, 421-427.
 Catholics in France, parties among, 95.
Censitaire, tenant of land en censive, 249; rights of, 250-252.
Censive, en, a kind of tenure, 249.
 Chalons, Sieur de, Riverin's partner, 293; joint mémoire of, 423.
 Champigny, intendant, letter of, 257; referred to, 376.
 Champlain, his strong missionary spirit, 107.
 Character, Canadian, formation of, 394.
 Charlevoix, Father, statement of, 123; reference to mines, 210 note; opinions of Canadian society, 392, 393.
 Charuy, son and successor of Lauson, 32.
 Charron, alderman and syndie of Quebec, 153.

Chasy, nephew of Gen. Tracy, killed by Indians, 191.
 Château St. Louis, 419-421.
 Châtel, a nun of Sisterhood of St. Joseph, 47.
 Châtelain, Father, his prying disposition, 350, 351.
 Chaumonot, a Jesuit, envoy to Onondagas, 16, 17; letter of, 81, 82 note.
 Chaumont, Chevalier de, member of Tracy's staff, 178; afflicted with a blister, 194.
 Chesnaye, Charles Aubert de la, letter of, 325 note, 326 note.
 Children, bounties on, 227; gratifying results of this policy, 228; Raudot's opinion of, 376 note.
 Citère, La, a forfeited grant, 249 note.
 Closse, Major, killed by Iroquois, 58.
 Colbert, Jean Baptiste, letter to Terron, 142, 143; minister of Louis XIV., his character and aims, 172-196; authorities, 173 note; instructions to Talon, 209; scolds intendants, 277; instructions as to Jesuits, 334, 335; letter to Talon, 416, 417; to same, 433; letters to Duchesneau, 434, 435.
 Colombière, vicar-general, eulogy on Laval, 165.
 Colonization, military, peculiarities of, 231, 232.
 Communication with France, rarity of, 288.
 Company of the West, its creation and purpose, 174; how it oppressed Canada, 175.
 Confessional, the, use of, by Jesuits, 351.
 Conversion of Iroquois, political significance of, 317.
 Côtes, formation of, 234.
 Council, sovereign, reorganization of, 154; constitution and powers of, 267, 268; in session, 271, 272.
 Councillors, character and tenure of, 274.
 Courcelle. See Rémy.
Coureur de bois, 310-313; punishment of, 310, 311; their return, picture of, 312, 313; uses and life, 313-315; missionaries' complaints of, 321.
 Coutume de Paris, 252.
 Crolo, a nun of Sisterhood of St. Joseph, 47.
 Curés, fixation of, 161; this policy favored by the king, 338; Denonville's views on, 438-440.

D.

Dablon, a Jesuit, envoy to Onondaga, 16; preaches against theatres, 347.