

the Time of the Patient's being at Liberty, to apply what is proper for the Cure of the most grievous Complaints.

Such is the Conduct held in the Lazarettos, the Effects of which have been found so beneficial; but the good Management, of which depends upon the Concert being kept up between so many different Precautions. I hope I have now discharged what my Orders required, viz. To describe, or give an Idea of the Functions of the Health Office, taken from the constant Practice here.
