

have adorned. Pray God, then, "the protector of all that trust in Him, without Whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy, to increase and multiply upon you His mercy," so that both your example here, and your future conduct in the world may tend, by His grace to establish the work of their hands, who once founded, or who still foster, this College.

---