

BRARY.

cultivate virtu-
ere amusement,
ontrived to give

ced into schools

ngs, and printed ecidedly the most
we have seen for

ence. No writer
with livelier inter-
history and blog-
unfolds rich and

nature present,
The publication
ion, to eradicate
the public mind.
that reality has
the ideal world.
capable of afford-

to urge this val-
l cost but a trifle,
s of insuring suc-
of reading them.

ned by numerous
aluable library.

library. Its top-
mole but effective

ment. It is cheap
exercise a whole-
or, it strongly ins truth in a guise
votaries of fiction
works at this time

EDUCATION, }
Sept. 2, 1844. }

a series of books
ication by Samuel
cing, in the course
graphy, geography,
dition of the arts,
the same are high-

ured by trustees for eriod. A true copy
F. MACK, Sup't.