JEWEL ROBBERY.

NORTH BAY, Feb. 3 .- (Special.)-Thieves smashed the plate glass window of Philip Adams' store about four o'clock in the morning and abstracted about two hundred dollars worth of jewelry. An old man named Joseph Moss, a stranger, was arrested with some of the loot io his pockets, which he claims to have found on the sidewalk. Moss was sent to the prison camp at Matheson for two months. The most valuable of the jewelry is still missing.

TORE HOLE IN HIS NECK.

NORTH BAY, Feb. 3 .- (Special.)-M. McCartney, C.P.R. employe of Chalk River, was unloading steel at small station about eight miles east of North Bay, when a heavy piece of metal fell on a pinch bar which he was using, snapped the heavy iron bar thru the air striking McCartney and making a jayged hole in his neck, from which the blood gushed in a torrent. The pured man was rushed on a freight engine to North Bay hospital. His chances of recovery are good.
