Old Country Cricket

Interviewed by The World yesterday, Mr. W. G. Ellis, formerly a player and at present an enthusiastic supporter of Bedford Park Cricket Club, said:

"I am exceptionally well pleased to see from to-day's announcement that The Toronto World is going to give that prominence to the game of cricket which is its due. The underlying principle of cricket is ,that if in the opinion of the umpire you are out, you are but. When the umpire may be technically wrong and the player knows that, and whilst suffering under temporary discipline, yet he is educated to accept defeat with equal decorum as with success. This ability to take defeat like men has earned for Britishers that character for true sportsmanship which is of world renown.

Systematic competitive play under proper discipline is a great destroyer of selfishness, and produces that consideration for others which is so pronounced in the educated Britisher. Here I might add that to play competitive cricket requires good grounds, and I regret that the question of accommodation in connection with our public schools and public parks has been sadly neglected. Finally, while the boys attending our public schools are considered in the provision of public playgrounds, it is equally incumbent on the civic authorities to provide facilities for the recreation of the youth in the office, shop or factory."

Walter Cox Pilots Two Winners At Detroit Blue Ribbon Meet

Mansfield and Esther W. Win Under His Whip—Independence Boy Wins Heat in Fast Time—Summary.

DETROIT, July 25.—Walter Cox, with three victories already to his credit since the Grand Circuit meet started, piloted two more winners to-day. With Mansfield he captured the 2.12 pace in four heats, and landed Esther W. in front after five stirring heat sin the 2.12 trot.

The best time of the year was hung up in the free-for-all pace when Independence Boy did the first heat in 2.02¼. Seven horses with an average record of 2.02¼ started in this event, but only three finished inside the money. Sir R. and Hal B., jr., caught the flag in the first heat, Vernon McKinney in the second and Ross K. in the third.

Vernon McKinney, in the first heat, led to within 50 yards of the wire, when Independence Boy came alongside and in a whipping finish beat the McKinney horse by a neck. In the second heat, Vernon McKinney broke at the start and fell far behind. The other four raced together to the last turn, where James' stallion caught up with them. Then the five came down the stretch abreast, but McKinney could not stand the pace and went into the air again. Independence Boy and Evelyn W. drew away, and in another gruelling finish the mare got the decision by a narrow margin. Evelyn W. and Independence Boy were the contenders all the way in the third round, with Evelyn W. a length in th lead at the wire.

Star Russell looked good in the 2.12 pace, winning the first heat and losing the second by inches, but she went lame and was drawn. Cox, with Mansfield in the next three heats, stayed back in the bunch until straightened out for the wire and then came away to win.

Esther W. took the first heat of the 2.12 trot rather easily. Cox could not keep her on her feet in the second and third heats, which went to Jack London after a hard drive in each instance. In the fourth heat Esther W. trailed the field to the last turn, but overhauled the bunch in the stretch and was first home. The final round was easy, Cox sending the mare out in front and holding the lead all the way.

Helen Stiles defeated her old-time rival, Anvil, in straight heats in the 2.09 trot. Geers horse led most of the way around in the first heat, but could not stave off Stiles' rush at the end. In the second heat Anvil broke right afte rthe start and was on the run a great deal of the time until the far turn, where the four contenders were stretched out 50 yards or more apart. Then Geers got Anvil into his stride and with a superb drive passed Kenyon W. and Gray Gem, getting second place by the narrowest of margins. Helen Stiles, however, had slowed down almos tto a walk at the wire.

Every thing in the Beach League is ready for a big day on Saturday, and judging from the class of ball they are playing, a good attendance can be expected. The first game will bring together the Eatons and Royals, and as these two teams are neck and neck for first place something can be expected. In the second a good many expect the Kew team will have a walkover with the Harriers. This will not be the case as a new team will be on the field and will make the Kews fight all the way.

Maher's Week-end Sale.

The sale at Maher's Horse Exchange yesterday was rather brisk. Consignments were numerous and buyers had no difficulty in filling their requirements. The quality of the stock offered was also up to a high standard. A number of out-of-town buyers were on hand and purchased several horses. Prices were the same, there having been no decided upward or downward trend at all in the past few weeks. Farmers and breeders are still asking exorbitant prices for horses in the country, keeping the market steadily quiet. Some of the buyers were:

George Chapman, New Liskeard; Steinberg & Co., Berlin, Ont.; Samuel McLean, Trafalgar, Ont.; H. Hambley, Gull Lake, Sask. (part car load); Bert V. Weese, Lindsay, Ont.; R. Hodges, Jarvis, Ont. (part car load); J. J. McFadden & Co., East Templeton, Que.; T. Cussion, Whitby, Ont.

Some city buyers were: J. Meyers, D. McGregor, Wm. Boyd, R. Bimblett, John Vokes, W. Harris & Co., J. J. Walsh, Elias Rogers & Co., J. H. Cluff, George Wilkinson, Abel Boyd, R. Taylor & Son, B. Burbidge, Richard Wilson and others.

The management were very well pleased with the result and report that they have received advices from several of their dealers now in the country that they are sending in carload shipments for next Monday's auction sale, further particulars of which will appear in the Saturday morning and evening papers and The Sunday World.
