

WOMAN'S WORLD.

AN ATTRACTIVE GOWN IN CASHMERE.

6738—6739—Cashmere is quite as much in favor as it was a year ago and some very smart gowns are being made of it. The one sketched will appeal to the woman who makes her own gowns, or has them made at home, because the lines are simple and yet there is an air of quality and dash about it that causes one to admire it. The tucks upon the shoulder, back and front provide extra fullness where it is needed and broaden the shoulder line. The tucker effect in the centre of each gore there is a box pleat which provides extra fullness and grace for the skirt. These may be stitched to any desired depth. Any of the new seasonable fabrics may be used, the medium size demanding 7 yards of 44-inch material.

Two Patterns—6738—sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure.
6739—sizes 20 to 32 inches waist.

The price of these patterns is 20c, but either will be sent upon receipt of 10 cents.

Clothes.
Talking to a woman, whose religious work is well known over this continent, she said, in speaking of another woman's work, "When I first saw her, she was so beautifully groomed that I feared she had neglected some of the essentials in order to bestow time on her dress, the woman she began to speak of soon dismissed my mind of that fear."

Another woman said to me: "Oh, clothes! I have no time to devote to them, but I think it is important waiting for the world."

These things may be true, but it seems to me that the outward appearance counts for a great deal in this world.

Sensitively you may be, but nevertheless, if you are feminine, you jump to conclusions and you judge people by their external appearance, for it is not for you to look upon the heart.

And, judging by outward appearances, as you undoubtedly do, are you not prejudiced in favor of the woman whose neat appearance, whose harmony in coloring from head to toe, proclaims her to be careful about her clothes, or do you prefer the slovenly woman whose combination of colors sets your teeth on edge?

Clothes are a moral force, not only to yourself but to others.

The consciousness of being well-dressed, or having a costume, no matter of which can be criticized, has carried many a woman thru a difficult and trying situation, while the badly-dressed woman is immediately placed at a disadvantage.

On the platform the well-dressed woman commands a hearing; in the social world good clothes are imperative.

We cannot afford to despise clothes, then, they are such a factor in our lives; nor is it necessary to devote all our time and thought to dress in order to make a good appearance.

In a city like Toronto, where the shops are so full of beautiful things, which are not always expensive things, the woman of taste and intelligence may be well-gowned at a comparatively trifling expenditure of time and money.

GOT A PAIN IN YOUR BACK?

You get a pain in your back, and you wonder what is the matter. You perhaps pay no attention to it. Backache is caused by imperfect action of the kidneys, in fact is the first sign of kidney trouble to follow.

The kidneys, proper, are composed of a close network of fibrous tissue, interlaced with tiny elastic fibres. Their object is the excretion of the uric acid, and other poisonous matter composing the urine, from the blood.

They are continuously at work to preserve the general health of the body and most people are troubled with some form of kidney trouble, but do not suspect it.

Some of the symptoms are: A feeling of weakness in the small of the back, sharp pains in back, puffiness under the eyes, and swelling of the feet and ankles, urinary troubles such as suppressed urination, excessive urination, cloudy, thick or highly colored urine, etc.

Mr. J. L. Whiting, Oshawa, Ont., writes: "I suffered for two years with back and leg pain. I could not get on my feet. I took four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and I now sleep well. I can now do my work and I feel like a new man. I am now free from kidney trouble."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25. All dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pills Co., Toronto, Ont.

The Village Station.

Elbert Hubbard says: "It is no wonder the village station is always crowded. It is the only excitement the villagers have, except when the Methodist Church holds revival meetings, and then they forsake the station for the church."

I thought of this the other day as I stood on the crowded platform of a country station, waiting for my train. Such various types there were.

There was the typical backwoods farmer, with the rusty-looking dog-skin coat, muddy top boots and peaked cap. He was chewing tobacco vigorously, while he listened to the remarks of a prosperous-looking individual in a Chesterfield overcoat, and sea-skin gaiters.

I was not surprised to learn that the latter gentleman was an oil prospector, poor, having learned this, was I surprised when he picked up a little girl, who was tumbling around her father's feet, and held her in his arms while he completed his conversation.

There was the village gossip, thin, grate-haired and sharp-nosed. She eyed me from head to toe, and I had an amused consciousness of the fact that she had a mental inventory of everything I had on that, before I went to my left, she would have found out where I had been staying and why, and a great deal of other miscellaneous information.

The inevitable woman who travels with a baby was also on hand. Why a woman will select a night train to travel with an unfortunate child, tired and sleepy, who wails vigorously during the whole journey, is one of those things no "fellow" can find out.

The village belle, very conscious of her own charms, somewhat loud in her laugh and a trifle over-dressed, was conducting a pronounced flirtation with two of the village beaux, who lounged at their side, while she occasionally made eyes at the "city man" at the other side of the room, who was watching her "killing" with somewhat bored amusement.

There were some of the hard-headed village fathers, too, and an occasional village mother, whose qualities cannot fall to command our respect, and altogether one found the half hour's wait in the village station a not uninteresting one.

Convido Port

Just one little province in Portugal grows grapes that make Porto Wine truly rich, nutritious, tonic.

The best of those "Alto Douro" grapes make Convido Port Wine. For surety, take it bottled right where it's made.

It's a most good wine-glass of Convido than in a goblet of most ports.

James Wright of Lindsay, Collared in Buffalo, Admits Extensive Operations in Ontario.

Buffalo, Jan. 7.—(Special.)—Charged with forgery for the passing of worthless cheques on numerous hotels in both Canada and the United States, all of which the police say he admitted in a signed statement, James J. Wright, 16 years old, was arrested here Sunday night.

When he was searched at police headquarters a number of cheques on the National Bank of Rochester and the Bank of Montreal were found, all filled out and signed with the name of A. D. MacLeod and John Wakely. In a statement which the police say he signed after his arrest, he said that his home was in Lindsay, Ont., and that Miss L. A. Wakely of that place was his guardian.

His career of crime, according to the statement, started on Nov. 25, 1936, when he stole $125 from the Dominion Bank of Uxbridge, Ont., while he was employed there collecting drafts. He then went to Toronto.

He went from Toronto to several other towns, and then to Cornwall, Ont. At Cornwall he cashed a cheque for $15 on the Dominion Bank. From Cornwall he went to Montreal, and later returned to Cornwall, and from there, went to Brockville, Ont.

The youth never paid his hotel bills and defrauded many hotels out of payment. While in Cornwall he is said to have passed a worthless cheque on the Dominion Bank of Uxbridge to the hotel for his bill. He then traveled to Kingston, Ont., where he failed to pay his bill, and from there he went to Preston. He ran a bill at the Queen Elizabeth Hotel, which he failed to pay, and went to Ogdensburg, where he cashed a worthless cheque at the Hotel Norman on the Traders' Bank for $100.

He will be held at police headquarters until the police, hotels and banks of other cities have heard from him.

A LECTURE WORTH HEARING.

Dr. A. Lawrence Roth Will Speak Here on Saturday Evening.

The president of the Canadian Institute announces that on Saturday evening next a lecture will be given in the lecture theatre of the medical building of the university by Dr. A. Lawrence Roth, the director of the Blue Hill Observatory, Boston, Mass., on "The Exploration of the Atmosphere Over Land and Sea."

Dr. Roth, who is the sole proprietor as well as director of the Blue Hill Observatory, is a gentleman of a world-wide scientific reputation. He it was who was the first to fly kites carrying instruments to great heights, and this he has done in various parts of the world, including the Atlantic Ocean, from the tropics northward to the route followed by transatlantic steamships.

Keeping the barometer with the Price of Monaco and M. Tellerence de Bort of Paris, France, has obtained records with both kite and balloon in the neighborhood of the Canary Islands, and these observations have been of very great value in supplying information regarding the conditions prevailing in the upper regions of the atmosphere.

Dr. Roth is a member of the international commission for aeronautics, and never fails to attend all committee meetings, in whatever country they may be held. The meetings on Saturday evening will be free to the public, and will certainly be of very great interest to those who love nature and nature study.

CHEAPER LITERATURE.

Arrangement to Be Made Between U. S. and Canadian Publishers.

New York, Jan. 7.—An important development in the publishing business will be brought about on Thursday in Toronto, which promises to make great changes in the book world.

John G. Kidd, eastern manager of the Safford Publishing Company of New York, Akron, O., and Chicago, leaves here Wednesday to complete the arrangements. Just what the details of the deal are Mr. Kidd will not say, but it is understood he will give out some sort of statement in Toronto. The Canadian end of the deal is in the hands of the Copp, Clark Company of Toronto. The negotiations have been pending some time.

It is understood that as a result of the deal the best of American authors will reach the Canadian market in a wholesale manner, instead of the piecemeal proposition the Canadian publications will be exploited in the United States in a manner never before known. The Safford Company has made many revolutionary movements in the book world in the last five years, handling the works of the best writers by the trainload. The public reap the benefit in lower prices, and the authors in greatly increased royalties.

PREVENTED DISASTER.

Christmas Week Tragedy That Might Have Happened.

North Bay, Jan. 7.—(Special.)—Saturday night, the Winnipeg express, east-bound, collided with a freight train east of Cheltenham on the C.P.R. main line. The train crews escaped injury by jumping, and none of the passengers were hurt, but considerable damage was done to rolling stock.

The accident was caused by the freight not taking a side track promptly to allow the express to pass.

Another collision was narrowly averted near Carleton Place during Christmas week, when the east and west-bound Winnipeg express trains, crowded with holiday travelers, were brought to a standstill within a few yards of each other.

The electricity of the engineers alone prevented a terrible accident.

It is said that the failure of a station agent to deliver meeting orders to the west-bound conductor was responsible. An investigation is in progress at North Bay.

CARD CHAMPION CONVERTED.

Woman Prize Winner Arises in Church to Denounce the Game.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—A despatch from Des Moines, Iowa, says: Before a congregation of nearly a thousand persons, and while the preacher was in the midst of his sermon, Mrs. A. B. Sims, a society woman and holder of the national woman's whist championship, arose yesterday in the University Church of Christ and denounced card-playing as a sin.

Two years ago Mrs. Sims won the first prize for women in the whist tournament held at Cleveland last year.

It is said that the recent evangelist meetings in the city were responsible for the change in Mrs. Sims' ideas.

$3,000,000 UP IN SMOKE.

Chinese Section of Bangkok, Siam, Is Fire-Swept.

Bangkok, Siam, Jan. 7.—The Chinese trading quarters of Bangkok have been devastated by fire. It is estimated that the loss will amount to about $3,000,000.

Bangkok, the capital of Siam, is situated twenty miles from the mouth of the Menam River. Many of the houses are built upon stilts, a single rift frequently supporting eight or ten houses. Part of the city, however, is of modern construction, having electric illumination and electric cars, while lines of steam railway run in various directions.

The business of Bangkok is largely in the hands of the Chinese, who are about as numerous as the native Siamese. The estimates of the population vary between 250,000 and 300,000.

A Methodist Debate.

Resolved that if the City of Toronto were to own and operate the present street railway system, it would result in large benefit to the citizens, is the subject of a debate to be held in the Sunday school room at Trinity Methodist church, to-night, between Broadway and Trinity young men's clubs. This is the first debate in the debating league of the Methodist Young Men's Association, and it should prove an interesting contest.

The Manufacturers Life Insurance Co.

WORK A WONDERFUL CURE

CONSTITUTION & INDIGESTION ENDED

Are you a sufferer from Liver Complaint, Constipation or Indigestion? Do you have frequent Headaches, Dizziness, Pains in the Chest or Wind Spasms? If you do, depend upon it, these ailments will not "get better of themselves." Nature has provided a remedy in Bileans, and on every hand proofs are forthcoming of the power of this herbal remedy. Just note the experience of Mrs. F. Greene, of Kingston (Ont.), she says:—A sluggish liver in my case led to acute indigestion and Constipation. I felt dull and sleepy, had no energy whatever for work and every now and again had a bad attack of biliousness. The food I ate seemed to lie heavy on my stomach and caused wind and cramps in stomach and bowels by its decomposition. The constipation was so bad that my bowels had to be forced at each passage. All kinds of medicines I tried, but nothing did me any lasting good until I got Bileans. I have never found anything so equal them for constipation, liver and stomach troubles. They soon began to do me good and in the end cured me completely. Since then I have felt like a different woman. I am bright and buoyant in spirit, not dull and sleepy as I used to be. I have got back my normal activity; and, in fact, seem re-made by Bileans."

Is Your Ailment in This List?

Bileans are a herbal cure for Indigestion, Biliousness, Wind, Belching, Headache, Constipation, Anemia, Dizziness, Ailments, and Irregularities, Nervousness, Depression, Rheumatism, Blood in Urine, Colds and Chills, Loss of Tone, Debility and all Liver and Stomach disorders.

All druggists sell at 50c a box, or from Bileans Co., Toronto, by sending price. 6 boxes for $2.50. Send one cent stamp for sample box.
