British, American and German Members Have Had Some Amicable Conferences.

Washington, April 19.-Mr. Bartlett Tripp, left this city to-day for San Francisco Baron Sternberg followed at 3.30 for Chicago. Before leaving Baron Sternberg had an extended conference with the German Ambassador, going over all the points of the Samoan issue as presented in the instructions. The meetings here between american, British and German commissioners, which were quite social and informal, have been productive of a very amicable sentiment among all concerned.

The Neepawa Press reports the mysterious disappearance of N. H. Newman of Laurier. He has been missing from the district since March 20, and probably perished during a storm about that time. He was last seen at John Birnie's residence, North Eden, where he sought shelter for the night, while returning from Neepawa, where he gave evidence against Gib Wilson and Charles Johnson for assault, of which he was the victim.

Mrs. Nay Gone Home.

After a fruitless search for her son, Mrs. Nay has returned to her home in Renfrew. In a letter to General Superintendent Leonard of the C.P.R. yesterday, Mrs. Nay thanked the officials of that road for their kindness in trying to find her son.

restores complete energy and cheerfulness.

"I had been troubled for several years with spells of liver complaint," writes H. N. Dransfield, Esq., of Centennial, Monroe Co., W. Va., "and about two years ago iny health gave way. I tried Sarsaparilla. I was getting worse all the time. I had a weakness in my left side and limbs, papitation of the heart at times, cramping pains in the stomach after eating; nerves weak, and no energy for anything. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and began to mend from the start. I soon felt like a new person. I am now enjoying splendid health and have a splendid appetite, good digestion, and also a peaceful, quiet mind."

London, April 19.—The House of Commons to-day, by a vote of 220 to 141, rejected the second reading of the bill repealing the Coercion Act of 1887, after the Attorney-General for Ireland, the Right Hon. J. Atkinson, had pointed out the efficacy of the act, the existence of which, he asserted, had "brought about the present peace." All rejoiced, the Attorney-General added, in the wisdom and justice of the act, and he demanded the retention of this instrument, "ready for use in case of emergency."

NINE GIRLS OUT ON STRIKE.

Would Not Accept Piece Work at Nine girls of the hrm of 1. When Co. are out on strike since Saturday. They refused to accept piecework.
P. W. Ellis treats the matter lightly. The girls worked at enamelling. They were put on piece work, at which it was thought they would earn better wages.
"They made no demands upon the firm, and we have no reason to suppose that they will not return to work," said Mr. Ellis.

This is the Season.

Ladies and gentlemen that desire a serviceable mackintosh or waterproof coat should leave their order with Stovel, Hunter & Co., 100 King-street west. Both members of the firm have had practical experience in the rubber coat manufacturing and this is the only house in the Dominion where waterproof garments are made to order. It will repay you twice over to choose your material and have your waterproof coat cut and finished in the style that you would wish. They have a large assortment of both ladies' and gentlemen's coats on hand. Give them a call.
