

SAVE MONEY—HAVE SATISFACTION

You surely don't need to be told that this is the best time of all the year in which to purchase furs. Need we remind you of these facts? That our fur stock is the largest we've ever had—and that's saying a whole lot—that everything is new and the list is most complete; that we've stuck to the old prices, though the foreign prices have advanced nearly thirty per cent.

In short, if you buy to-day you have a large choice, small prices, and the satisfaction of having a winter garment ready to defy the "icy wind." Visit our show rooms to-day.

Ladies' Rainproofs and Hats

Then there are our two new stores—the handsomest in Canada—stocked with a display of new goods just arrived from New York.

Rainproofs in every new Fifth Avenue design. Parisian Feather Boas and Ladies' Hats in gorgeous or plain designs—all rich—all good.

Men's Autumn Hat Styles

We've had two weeks of such business as the store never knew before. We were right in the hub of trade every day. The crowds have gone, but the enthusiasm remains.

Why shouldn't this be the busiest store as well as the best? Times are good and people can afford good things. The essence of buying wisdom lies in the direction of quality rather than price.

Apply this to Men's Hats to-day. We're showing the new blocks in Soft Felts, hats that are made to wear between the summer straw and the winter Derby. Light weights, light colors and our own distinctive styles.

The Simpson Clothing.

Buying Clothing in the Men's Store means several very important satisfying things—

1. You are choosing practically from all Canada. We sell the cream of the Clothing produced in the Dominion by all the Clothing manufacturers in competition.
2. Our prices are such as you find here, and here only. We don't believe in shoddy Clothing at any price, and we don't believe in extravagance at any price. The best at the figure—that's the aim of the Men's Store.
3. You'll find that Simpson Clothing is an altogether different proposition as regards style, finish, cut, pattern, cloth, trimmings, workmanship, etc., to the old-time "ready-made" clothes. The tailor can give you as good but no one else is likely to. Come down Monday and test us. Lots of time before train time Tuesday.

AS TO REV. MR. STARR.

King Dods says that a Third Party is No Good.

E. King Dods, in The Canadian Sportsman, says—

The Rev. Mr. Starr is a strenuous man; he has strong beliefs and doesn't mince his words when expressing his opinions. Like most men who has a hobby, he rides it at a furious pace and allows his feelings to control his judgment. He has made up his mind that prohibition of the liquor traffic is the one thing necessary to improve the morals of the people, and like many others with whom the wish is father to the thought he refuses to recognize its many trials that have resulted in a disastrous failure, and is still anxious to see a law that has failed all over the United States adopted in this country.

He has neither the space to spare nor the inclination to give columns to give the mass of official evidence easily obtainable which furnishes common proof that in practice it fails to accomplish the purpose intended, and in cities and towns intensifies the evils it is sought to eradicate. The reverend gentleman is apparently thoroughly conversant with both political parties in this country. He declares that the leaders on each side favor on the liquor traffic and are ever ready to play into their hands. Now, I am not going to deny that there has been a close alliance for a long time between the Ross government and the wile-purloiners of the liquor traffic. Association, but I don't think I can think of a chief apostle of temperance by act of parliament is justified in classing Mr. Whitney as a chief apostle of the liquor traffic and pleading for its support.

Mr. Whitney is a manly, straightforward fashion, declared that his experience of the working of the Scott Act, which he at one time supported, had convinced him that such laws were not in the best interests of the people, and he therefore declared his preference for a stringent temperance law, one which, administered free from political partisanship, would be infinitely more in the public interest than any other. Legislation like a prohibitory law, as the leader of his party in Ontario remarks, Mr. Whitney is not a man who is wont to put himself on record, and thus place himself should be called upon to form a government, to put into practice the views he has expressed. From first to last he never wavered, nor wavered on this question, because if a fair man, Mr. Starr should accord him the credit justly due him from having dealt with an important moral question in a straightforward way, and in the manner which his judgment, after keen observation, had proved to be the wisest course to pursue.

I can easily understand that an emotional man like the Rev. Mr. Starr, one who is such a hot proponent of a cause, has very strong feelings on the subject, and naturally is vehement in his denunciation of those he believes to have played fast and loose with the temperance party. It is certainly going to his credit that he has a trusted chief of that party leads him to the threshold of victory and then delivers them into the hands of their enemy. He is the very perfection of temperance, and scores of prominent temperance friends of Mr. Starr's men like himself, prominent workers in the cause, lacked the manliness and common honesty.

EST NECESSARY TO PROTEST AGAINST SUCH DOUBLE-DEALING, BUT INSTEAD ALLOWED THEIR POLITICAL FAITH TO OVERRIDE THEIR CHRISTIAN PRINCIPLES AND THEY, LIKE OTHER ONE-TIME LEADERS, ALSO BASELY SURRENDERED TO THE POLITICAL EXIGENCIES OF THE HOUR.

The Rev. Mr. Starr's agitation in favor of a third party is a delusion and a snare, if the temperance leaders and their following are not strong in their political faith now, they will be no more honest in marking their beliefs by joining a third party. I have known scores of them to vote for anti-prohibitionists who were running for office and against men who had been long-temperance workers, and it is the knowledge of these facts that has made the Ross government laugh at his demonstrations and play fast and loose with their dealings with them. Plainly speaking, the Rev. Mr. Starr and his temperance colleagues cut no ice up at the Parliament Buildings. They meet and resolve and denounce and threaten, but like the barking dog that never bites, no real alarm is felt over their noisy demonstrations. They marshal a host and with blarney and a blare of trumpets march up to the Parliament Buildings and then march down again, only that, and nothing more.

BOUNTIFUL PROMISES.

New York, Sept. 11.—Figures of the year's crop for which the financial markets of the country have been so eagerly watching, were made public yesterday. There has been no disappointment, contrary to general expectations, but on the other hand, there has been an improvement, not only in corn but in several staples which have fallen away since the last government report published in August.

Based on the conditions shown in the report, there should be 2,290,000,000 bushels of corn harvested in the great west this year, which is about 100,000,000 bushels less than the bumper crop of 1902. In wheat, since the August report, there has also been an improvement, according to the government figures. In August the combined spring and winter wheat crop was estimated to be 620,250,000 bushels. Last month the statement of the Produce Exchange declared that on the conditions reported on in the report, there should be a crop of 699,841,000 bushels, an increase of nearly 200,000,000 bushels. Only once in more than half a century has the record of a bumper crop of wheat in the United States reported by the government in August. This year, however, the government reports that the crop will be 699,841,000 bushels, a percentage of 78.7 to 80.1 between August 1 and Sept. 1.

VANDERBILTS MAKE UP.

Newport, R.I., Sept. 11.—It is stated upon excellent authority that the reconciliation between members of the family of Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt, which began only last winter when Mrs. Vanderbilt called upon Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt at the Waldorf Astoria, in New York, has now become an accomplished fact. Recently Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt have made a formal call on the Vanderbilts, the sons-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, and while there have been no dinner parties or any other socially distinguishable means of celebrating the return of peace and happiness to the Vanderbilt household, it is generally understood that there is now an understanding between all its members.

In Australia.
The Sydney Morning News reports that the Pomona suffrage is in rather an unsettled position in Australia. It is the law all over the Commonwealth, so far as Federal elections are concerned. But the whole does not include all the states, and some of the constituent states have not yet come to a decision. In Queensland, for example, the women's suffrage has been in operation for some time. A member of the Queensland parliament, seeking to ascertain the best mode of approaching the subject of the women's suffrage, asked the Australian legislator, "How do you please think the Pomona suffrage will be settled?" "No, sir," was the candid reply. "We kiss the electors."
