Mr. Mills Named.

The New Senator Now Spoken of for the Supreme Court Chief Justiceship,

A Post of Honor Vacated by the Promotion of Sir Henry Strong.

(Special to The Advertiser.) Ottawa, Nov. 27.-There is a possibility of Hon. David Mills being made chief justice of the Supreme Court in place of Sir Henry Strong, who will go to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, to which post he has now been recommended by the Government. At any rate, there is no one now a member of the court who is likely to be promoted to the chief justiceship. Justice Taschereau, who would fill the ball, is now in India for the benefit of his health, and is not likely to again sit in court. Justice King, who is now in British Columbia, will probably be nominated as successor to Sir Henry Strong, if any of the present Supreme Court judges are.

CURRAN BRIDGE AGAIN.

More Litigation Over Pay for the Job. Ottawa, Nov. 27.—The case of the Queen vs. St. Louis came up in the Exchequer Court today. The crown sues for $143,000, which was alleged to be overpaid in connection with the Curran bridge. It will be remembered that St. Louis already sued the Government for $63,000 in connection with this matter, he being underpaid. Mr. Osler, Mr. Hogg and Solicitor-General Fitzpatrick appeared for the crown and Hon. A. C. Geoffrion and Mr. El-Mr. Geoffrion is that under the Quebec law the crown cannot sue on the same facts twice. In this case he says the crown is bound by the Quebec law. Justice Burbridge seemed in his remarks to agree with Mr. Geoffrion. Mr. Osler, on the other hand, argued that there was no estoppel of the crown under the law of England, and the case was being tried under that law. law.

When the man went out again his wife returned to him, but it is stated that, being poorly off a few weeks ago, the husband sold her and three children for 15 shillings to a single man, and went away. Though the neighbors talk, all the parties to the new arrangement seem very happy.
