Hams Beat Henrion But Okie Stops 'Em

Tecumseh's Secure Even Break in Yesterday's Double-Header With the Shagmen—Scores Are 12 to 3 and 5 to 2.

(BY BERT B. PERRY.) London got the odd game of the series with the Hamilton Tigers, which closed yesterday with a double-header. The Tecumseh's succumbed in the first part of the bill, but they grabbed off the concluding conflict. The scores were 12 to 3 and 5 to 2.

Of the two games, the seven-inning affair was the choice, not only from the standpoint that London won, but it provided a great deal more interest. The Hams got away to a big lead in the first two frames of the first fracas, and London never got close enough to hit it.

Henrion Starts Badly. "Steady" Henrion, the local spitballer, went out to stop the Hams at the beginning. He was opposed by Glazier, one of Shag's best batters. Henrion, who has been pitching some nice ball lately, was not opposed to the Tigers. They got to him for a total of eleven hits before he was taken out in the seventh to make way for Schmidt. Henrion started badly, a fault by Command in the first frame opening the way to the Bengals scoring a couple of runs. In the second frame O'Rourke hit a lucky home run with two men on base, and after that the game was merely a work-out.

Glazier Had London Guessing. Glazier, with his change of pace, seemed to have the Stewart gang tied up in knots when they were required. His support was shaky at times, and practically all the runs London got were due to loose fielding or a spasm of wildness on his part. The Indians only scored two runs in the first two frames of the second game. The Indians only scored two runs in the first two frames of the second game.

Okie Does the Trick. Frankie Okie was sent in to take the odd game from the Tigers, and he pitched a fine game. Shaugnessy selected Schettler to oppose him, and for a time it was an interesting battle, with London holding a one-run lead in the sixth the Tigers overcame this margin, and then the Stewart gang began to show Schettler that his proper place was on the bench. Schettler's teammates hastened to his aid, and he was pulled some loose stuff at the end of the ninth. Schettler, the former Baltimore pitcher, was not opposed to the Hams. He pitched a fine game, and he was pulled some loose stuff at the end of the ninth.

Two Hits Migh Have Been Outs. The Tigers got three hits off Okie, but two of them were called balls, and converted into put-outs. O'Rourke got the first blow, when he hopped one down to Newman. Newman, who should have covered first, as Newman O'Rourke, did not get to the bag ahead of O'Rourke. The Hamilton third baseman also got second, Witry failing to cover in time. Newman, who should have covered first, as Newman O'Rourke, did not get to the bag ahead of O'Rourke.

London Starts Scoring. The Tecumseh's manufactured a run in the second frame of the sixth Command drove a double to left after Fearnley fanned. Newman got a life on Carlin's foot of an easy out. Fearnley worked the squeeze, Command drove, and Pittner set the safety. Newman, who should have covered first, as Newman O'Rourke, did not get to the bag ahead of O'Rourke.

Witry's Catch a Feature. One of the feature bits of fielding during the bill was a nice catch by Witry, who raced out to right field and clutched Schettler's fly to fly with one hand. Witry, filling in for second base, played a fine fielding game. Newman, who should have covered first, as Newman O'Rourke, did not get to the bag ahead of O'Rourke.

Shaugnessy tried hard for both games. The Tigers should have saved some of their runs for the second game. Runs were scarce yesterday on a wood nymph in that second pastime. Newman, who should have covered first, as Newman O'Rourke, did not get to the bag ahead of O'Rourke.

Henrion has very few bad days, but when he does have one it is an awful one. "Dad" took pity on him in the first game. Newman, who should have covered first, as Newman O'Rourke, did not get to the bag ahead of O'Rourke.

NEW LEAGUE RECORD

Saginaw and Battle Creek have established a new record in the Michigan League. In the past two days, these clubs have played two extra-inning games before a decision was reached. At Saginaw on Monday, they battled sixteen innings before the Aces shoved the winning run across. Yesterday at Battle Creek, fifteen innings were necessary before the Crushers broke the tie. Thirty-one innings of baseball for two games in two successive days is a record. It is doubtful if this record has been equalled for several seasons.
