ously in the Children's Aid campaign yesterday, broke his arm in three places last night about 10 o'clock, when cranking his car to return to his home. He was taken to Victoria Hospital, where his injuries were dressed. Mr. Kelly, who is inspector of the Children's Aid Society, had been busy all day in connection with the campaign, and was leaving the Chamber of Commerce rooms to drive home in his car. The engine, as a result of the effects of the cold, was not in good working order, and the efforts of Mr. Kelly to crank the machine resulted in the accident.

JACK PICKFORD, "BURG LAR BY PROXY," AT THE GRAND TO DAY, TOMORROW, WED. To the Editor of The Advertiser: Some time in June or July, 190

Added proof of the old adage that "love is bind" is given in "Burglar by Proxy," Jack Pickford's latest film which will be shown at the Grand today, temorrow and Wednesday. Jack Robin, Played by Pickford, falls in love with the voice of Dorothy Mason on a delicious spring afternoon while driving his trim little roadster down. Despite the worry occasioned him by a toothche he feels that he must find out from whence those sweet sounds came. Stopping his car Jack leans over a flower-covered fence to see Dorothy Mason singing and playing her own accompaniments on a baby-strand plano. The music and that spring steel in the beautiful Gowns in Startling Photoplay.

Will now be given the opportunity of viewing his start in a more finished form, for several little details and novelties have been added to the production since its was last seen in London.

The return engagement this week will be under the auspices of the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., and Acadian Club, and will be stiven for the benefit of the new Children's Hospital.
