PASTOR RUSSELL'S SERMON.

HALIFAX, N.S., Oct. 23.—A convention of Bible students, held in this city for several days, has concluded its sessions. A number of able addresses were made on appropriate themes by speakers, who evidently were deep students of the Scriptures. Many of these came from the United States, one party from Boston numbering about 100. Pastor C. T. Russell of Pittsburg, Pa., gave several addresses. One of these we report. It was from the text, "Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month, in the day of atonement shall thou the standpoint of the great prison house. Some are aware of the fact that there is to be a grand time of restitution."

We can imagine better than describe how a family if Israelites which had become poor and surrendered its partimony in liquidation of debt (fits members scattered as servants to others) would look forward longingly to the standpoint of the antitype we see the entire human family sold under sin and slavery thereto, and many of them gone into death, the great prison house. Some are aware of the fact that there is to be a grand time of restitution." month, in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound thruout all your land. And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty thruout all the land unto all the in-habitants thereof; it shall be a jubile habitants thereof; it shall be a jubilet unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family."—
(Lev. xxv:9-10). Pastor Russell said:
My topic of to-day stands closely related to the one of last Sunday, delivered in Chicago. However, dear friends, the blessings and conveniences of the wonderful day in which we lived from the reign of sin and death, and become a paradise of God and that all of the groaning creation living, as well as all of the dear brethren and sisters of Adam's children who, have gone down into the tomb, are yet to be brought back under more favorable conditions, are to have a new start, a new trial, a fresh opportunity of deciding for God, for righteousness, for eternal life, or for ultimate and everlasting extinction in the second death. Does some one suggest that it would be unrighteous on God's root to consider the fact that Adam's entire estate, the world in general, is to be reclaimed from the reign of sin and death, and become a paradise of God and that all of the dear brethren and sisters of Adam's children who, have gone down into the tomb, are yet to be rought back under more favorable conditions, are to have a new start, a new trial, a fresh opportunity of deciding for God, for righteousness, for eternal life, or for ultimate and everlasting extinction in the second death.

So that in the first few years of the jubilee year we might reasonably expect a sort of pandemonium in the shouting, bluster, excitement rejoicing, reciminating, etc. Doubtless almost anarchy would prevali for a time, until the new order of things would be rightly adjusted—until the elders who would have control would rightly set things in order. ready, here with us will keep on increasing and eventuate in the anarchy which the Scriptures portray; but then, thank God, will be ushered in the shortly be expected at Victoria to take new dispensation and the divinely appart in the trans-Pacific trade.

audience, tho not present in Chicago, availed themselves of the wide publication of the sermon thru the daily prints. Therefore I draw your attention now to the declaration of our text that the jubilee stands closely related to the atonement for sin. Without the atonement day sacrifice for sins, without the remission of sins, there would have been no antitypical jubilee provided for mankind. Hence the subject of last Sunday, and the one before us to-day stand associated as cause and effect, the atonement work which we discussed last Sunday being the basis for the jubilee blessings about to come to mankind—which we will discuss to-day. The Atonement Day with its for the jubilee blessings about to come to mankind—which we will discuss to-day. The Atonement Day, with its scriffces, came annually, but the jubilee only every fiftieth year. As our text declares, the trumpets announcing it were to be blown in the Atonement Day. The fact that the two tipes are associated teaches that the two tipes are associated teaches that the atonement sacrifices must make reconciliation for the sins of the world before the jubilee can be fully inaugurated.
