HAMILTON, Saturday, April 8.— The Sportsmen's Battalion, under the command of Lieut.-Col. R. R. Moodie, will conduct an aggressive recruiting campaign here all next week with the object of adding another 200 men to the strength, which is now close to the 500 mark. The motto of this bat-talion is, "Something doing every night." Band concerts, recruiting rallies, physical demonstrations and many other items of sport make up a program that will give entertainment to the men. Every man who has enlisted with the 205th will have his residence placarded with a yellow card bearing the figures "205th." This is only one of the many ideas that will be used in their recruiting campaign.

Recruiting continues to lag, and yesterday the total for all the depots was 33 applicants and 17 passed men. The 173rd had 15 apply and accepted 8. The 120th signed up three out of 11, and the Tigers had 7 apply and

SIX-FOOTERS WANTED BY IRISH FUSILIERS

Recruiting for overseas service reached an acute stage last night when all the overseas battalions yied with each other in strenuous attempts obtain and hold recruits. After violent contest, strengthened by number of men offering, the Irish Fusiliers easily topped the poll. The Fusiliers are after big fellows. They want a number of men over the six-foot limit. Already fifteen men topping the six-foot limit have signed up, but the Fusiliers want a whole platoon of big men. An officer, over the top limit is waiting, and he hopes that none above the height mentioned will overlook the Irish Battalion.
