OBEY THE LAW! Report at Once for Service or Claim Exemption Under the Military Service Act, all men in Class One are soldiers today, absent with leave and without pay. Failure to obey the law amounts to DESERTION and can be punished as such. Class One includes bachelors and widowers without children (not otherwise excepted) who were 20 years old on the 13th of October, 1917, and whose 34th birthday did not occur before January 1st, 1917. DO IT TODAY! The rush in the last few days may be such that in the hurry and stress a number of men may fail to comply with the requirements under the Act. That will not be recognized as an excuse, as every man is being given ample time to report for service, or claim exemption. GO TO YOUR POST OFFICE TODAY and ask for a form for reporting for service or for claiming exemption. Understand, it is a matter of LAW that all the men in Class One must report for service or claim exemption not later than November 10th, 1917. Issued by The Military Service Council

PORT-WRITERS HANDED OUT REAL HARD JOLTS What a difference in baseball writing by and 30 years ago! Nowadays the players are gently kidded. Thirty years ago they were pounded from pillar to post by the zealous scribbles—and the writers wrote just what they pleased. They were not afraid to say what they saw, and they were not afraid to say what they thought. Here are some stunts executed since altered the respect for the lord's deed. "Why does the Cincinnati club persist in standing by the useless and dissipated one Goux? Surely his ridiculous attempt to consume all the beer and whiskey and to consume all the beer north of the Rhine, should by this time have been as advertised as they deserve." "Frog Jumper, our great left-hander, as invented a new trick before and after every game. It is composed of a left hand of beer and whiskey, and frog's capacity seems to be simply unlimited." "Chaynes, the famous college pitcher, as either helplessly intoxicated or else drew the game. After the fourth inning he was replaced by Honky Skit, who is a least sober and honest, and Honky Skit topped the run getting." "A disgraceful row took place in Paddy O'Connell's saloon last night. In the presence of several members of the Brooklyn and Cincinnati Clubs, Con Kayser, the Brooklyn catcher, was attacked by Eddie Winkaco, another catcher of the same club, and seizing Gimpaco, the Cincinnati pitcher, one of the pitchers of his own team, but Champerdon smashed him on the head with a beer mallet, and Winkaco will be out of the game for several days." "Eddie Skirk and Jack Molte, two of the finest players of the New York club, settled old grievances last night in front of the Aeneas saloon. Both were raving drunk at the time. Skirk was fearfully beaten and was taken to the Irish hospital."
