JUMP IN RECRUITING

Eighty-Two Men Accepted Yesterday-To Systematize York Campaign.

The members of the court of enquiry are: Goa. Henry Smith, advocate-general, Ottawa, who is chairman: Lieut.-Col. J. J. Langton and Lieut.-Col. J. R. Forbes, paymaster of the Toronto military district. Col. Langton is the military inspector, who, it is said, discovered financial irregularities in connection with the administration of the funds of the 84th Battalion.

While this week marks the close of the vaudeville season at Shea's, there is a strong possibility that the theatre may reopen for the summer on Monday, May 22, as a moving picture house.

SCORE'S POPULAR NECKWEAR.

To obtain really nice neckwear, one must give it considerable attention, as there is so much ordinary material and patterns on the market. Our neckwear is selected from at least a dozen different manufacturers, and only the very best patterns are selected, and at the same time, our prices are quite reather than the same time.

German lists showed totals of over 2,500,000 and the public is asked to believe that the German casualties in the past nine months have only been something less than 300,000. As a matter of record the total German

AT THE HIPPODROME.

A feature playlet, "The Southern Porch Party," which provides an unlimited range for fine scenic effect, and which combines some of the southern atmosphere in its make-up, is the headliner for the Hippodrome next week. This is a delightful little comedy, which gives plenty of scope to introduce the music of the south, so keenly appreciated in the north. The management has also been fortunate enough to secure a Red Letter photo-play, entitled "A Youth of Fortune," introducing the popular Broadway stars, Carter De Haven and Flora Parker De Haven, in an up-to-the-minute college and society drama, filled with love, thrills, detectives and intrigue. Britt Wood appears in the amusing playlet, "When Ruben Came to Town." and Jesse Standish features in "The Pride of the Regiment," Loughlin's Dogs, real dog actors, show to what extent it is possible to train domestic animals, and Williams and Christie, the musical pair, complete a bill filled with exceptionally high-class offerings.

CLOSING WEEK AT SHEA'S.

The patrons of Shea's Theatre are finding a wonderful attraction this week in the fine musical offering of the Sixteen Navassar Girls, a symphonic choir, orchestra and band, which has elicited favorable comments wherever it has appeared. Under the direction of Miss Augusta Dial, some wonderful musical effects are produced. An entirely different every Wednesday and Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. 240shar. pearance in Toronto and it is bound to be a big hit at Locw's.

Smith and Kanfman, two clever comedians, will offer a laugh-provoking skit entitled "A Midnight Occurrence." Songs and fun make up the body of the act. Arthur Rigby, the original blackface comedian, who is constantly changing his comedy and material to be up to date, will offer his latest monologue and talk on the topics of the day. "Bits of Life" is a unique comedy drama. Overholt and Young Sisters, in a clever singing, comedy and dancing offering, and Louis Stone, the well-known "upsidedown dancer," who has appeared ix every country in the world, with other great acts, will be shown.

THE JOLLY GIRLS.

Lovers of pretty girls, good singing, clever dancing and good, clean funmaking will be well pleased by attending the Star Theatre next week,

Nor should mention be omitted of the special music discoursed by a specially engaged orchestra, which does so much to enhance the effect of it all. Those desiring to book seats should do so without delay in order to ensure a comfortable and convenient location.

"MY LADY'S SLIPPER."

At the Strand today and for the At the Strand today and for the balance of this week the headliner at the Strand Theatre will be "My Lady's Slipper," with beautiful Anita Stewart in the leading role. From the time of Cinderella to the present day it is a lady's slipper around which the hearts and hopes of men have centred—a lady's slipper which has played havoc with our hearts and not seldom with our fortunes. In this delightful photo-play of Paris in the reign of Louis, the "Sun King," Anita. Stewart is seen at her very best. The play is one with a plot at once convincing and compelling. The story is of intense human interest and the action is of the finest possible calibre.

NURSE CAVELL'S MARTYROOM

"The Martyrdom of Nurse Cavell," the thrilling photoplay tribute to the memory of England's noblest heroine, is attracting large crowds to the Gayety Theatre this week. Everyone who has seen it has been struck by the tense realism with which the tragic events are depicted leading up to Nurse Cavell's supreme sacrifice before the German bullets. The scenes of her trial and execution and her unfalling steadfastness in the presence of the German murderers commands these admiration of all. While the final scenes, showing her last prayers in her cell and the last march into the Brussels prison yard, are on his screen, Miss Virginia Kellogg Waite's rich soprano voice is heard in the solemn benediction of "Abide With Me" to organ accompaniment, and the effect is indescribably affecting.

In order that all the school children may have an opportunity of witnessing this thrilling patriotic lesson, the 208th Irish-Canadian Battalion has made arrangements with the consent of the board of education to put on special matinees for them from 4 to 6 p.m. daily. Parents or adults accompanying children will be admitted for 15 cents and the children themselves for 10 cents each. The exhibition is continuous from 12 noon to 11 p.m. daily. School children are also to be admitted for 10 cents at a special morning performance on Saturday from 9.30 to 12 o'clock.
