LARGE CROWD CHEERS WINDLE'S ARGUMENTS AGAINST PROHIBITION

Liberty League Champion From Chicago Lights Oratory With Much Pungent Humor at Expense of Conditions Alleged to Exist in the "Bone Dry" United States—No Heckling by Thousands in Armories.

"There are only three places where prohibition has even proved successful—Turkey, the prison, and hell—and no one wants to go to any of these," declared Hon. Charles A. Windle of Chicago in the course of an eloquent speech before an audience of some 7,500 people in the armories last night. The big building was crowded in every corner. Six thousand chairs were on the floor of the hall and every one had an occupant. The galleries were crowded and a large number of the hall stood packed at the back of the hall. The meeting was organized by the Citizens Liberty League as a protest against the "no" arguments in favor of the referendum and prohibition in general. Mr. Windle, who fought "Fussytrot" Johnson during the late campaign in Scotland, was the chief speaker. He is forceful and fluent, and drives his arguments home with considerable force. He was listened to with close attention and was not called upon to reply to any interrupter. At the finish of the address the audience rose and sang for Mr. Windle's benefit "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Prohibition and temperance were as different as fire and water, he said. Temperance was a man who controlled himself, prohibition was a man who controlled others. Prohibition, he contended, was enforced against the will of the individual and was a gross violation of the rights of manhood, he declared, amidst much cheering.

In referring to the arguments of the "drys," Mr. Windle declared they were as non-understandable as the difference between a horse-chestnut and a chestnut horse to the man who is not a horse expert. He declared that he had an idea they could vote a man dry. "Just let them try!" he shouted, and his audience cheered back. Just because a man got drunk, the prohibition party were prepared to forfeit one man's liberty for another man's act. Cries of "You've got them there!"

Do the prohibition party mean to tell me," asked Mr. Windle, "that the men—your sons and our sons—who fought for world's liberty and died in France were not men who could be trusted with a bottle of beer?" (Great cheering.)

Coming back to the prohibition arguments, Mr. Windle compared them to some soup President Lincoln once had served to his cabinet. He said that the president said it must have been made from the breast of a starved pigeon (laughter). Prohibition arguments, he contended, were no stronger than that soup.

FIND MUCH JEWELRY HIDDEN UNDER PORCH

Samuel Longbottom Is Rearrested Following a Sensational Discovery.

PARCELS AFFORD A CLUE

Released on Monday on bail of $10,000 on a charge, preferred on Saturday, of theft of gold ingots and jewelry valued at $15,000 from his employer, Raymond Roy, manufacturing jeweler, 23 River street, Samuel Longbottom, 33 Bain avenue, was rearrested late last night. The arrest followed the finding of jewelry valued at $20,000 under the rear porch of the Bain avenue house, and was made by Detective-Sergt. Charles Taylor, Detective Waterhouse and Plainclothesmen Davy and McArthur.

Since his release on bail on Monday, Longbottom has been under the surveillance of the police, and yesterday afternoon two packages were seen taken into the Bain avenue house. The information was communicated to detective headquarters and at 10:30 the police officers went to the house. A carried shovel was it was feared that the contents of the parcels might have been buried in the yard.

Friends of Ex-Emperor Released From Prison

Budapest, April 4.—The government is charged with being irresolute in the punishment of persons of no-Charles tendencies, Bishops, politicians and officers who were arrested have been released from prison. Some of the law experts declare that they could not be punished under the criminal code because Charles really holds the title of king in Hungary. In fact, they say, anyone interfering with the king's prerogatives might be held guilty of treason.

MILITARY COUNCIL IN HUNGARY FIRM AGAINST CHARLES

Time Limit for Departure Is Extended by Little Entente.

REGENT IS SUSTAINED

Budapest, April 4.—The military council of the republic consisting of forty officers of the highest standing under the presidency of Admiral Horthy, the regent, discussed late Saturday night measures which might be made necessary by the presence of former Emperor Charles in Hungary. "I took an oath to maintain the constitution, and I will not break it," said the regent in addressing the council. "Help me to save Hungary. Keep the troops under the strictest discipline." The members of the council thereupon took an oath of loyalty to the regent.

The troops of the local garrison renewed their oath of fidelity to the constitution this morning. Two airplanes appeared over the suburbs of Budapest today, dropping portraits of the former Emperor and Prince Charles in handbills. Minister of Agriculture Szabo declared to the correspondent: "Charles gave his word of honor to the regent. He is leaving the country, and now he is looking for a pretext to stay. But we have guaranteed (Continued on Page 4, Column 4.)"

KEEN INTEREST IN BY-ELECTIONS

British Cabinet Shuffle Necessitates Ministers Seeking Re-election.

London, April 4.—While the greatness of the issues involved in the coal strike overshadows all other matters in Great Britain, there is nevertheless in political circles keen interest in the by-elections necessary by the recent ministerial appointments. The promotion of Lord Edmund Talbot to the vice-royalty of Ireland vacates the seat which has been held for the Unionists since 1899. Captain Guest's appointment as secretary to the ministry of air necessitates his re-election in East Dorset. Stanley Baldwin, who is accepting the presidency of the board of trade, is asking a renewal of the confidence of his constituents in the Bewdley division of Worcestershire, which he has represented since 1908.

ADVISE RATE READJUSTMENT

Washington, April 4.—Readjustment of export rates on grain and grain products carrying a reduction of three cents east of Chicago was recommended to the railroads today by the interstate commerce commission.

Alleged Sinn Fein Envoy Held By Vancouver Police

Vancouver, B.C., April 4.—Osmond Grattan Esmonde, described as Sinn Fein "envoy" to Australia, was arrested here this afternoon on orders from Mayor Gale. The charge to be laid against him is said to be that of sedition, and probably arises out of Esmonde's alleged anti-British statements at a meeting here last Friday night.

Esmonde, refused admittance to Australia, because he refused to take the oath of allegiance, was brought back to Vancouver on the Australian liner Maracaibo and given permission by Canadian immigration authorities to land on condition that he proceed to an

GOVERNMENT TO ENACT DRASTIC REGULATIONS TO MEET THE STRIKE

Departments Will Be Given Almost Unlimited Powers to Take Over Utilities and Requisition the Food and Transport Facilities—Railwaymen Strongly Favor a Walkout—Rescinding of Decretal Bill to Become Effective May 30 Gaining in Favor.

London, April 4.—The signs tonight point to the dispute between the coal miners and the government drifting in the direction of the most serious industrial crisis in recent years. There are rumors that the government has decided upon certain military steps, which are likely still further to inflame the miners, while further emergency regulations will be issued in accordance with orders in council giving the various governmental departments almost unlimited powers to take possession of mines, lands, buildings, works, gas, electric and water supplies, horses, food and forage and requisition all kinds of transport, including tramways and light railways, to close ports or harbors, control shipping and cargoes, fix prices of coal and prohibit or regulate the sale and supply of motor oil.

LIBERTY LEAGUERS SOCIAL ANARCHISTS, SAYS REV. DR. ARNUP

Bitter Attack Made On Motives of Opponents of "Bone Dry" Law.

RALLY IN MASSEY HALL

A flow of impassioned oratory against the liquor traffic in every phase of its existence, was let loose by Rev. J. H. Arnup, secretary of the foreign missions board of the Methodist Church at the referendum rally at Massey Hall last night. During his address he took the opportunity to refer rather scathingly to the antics made by Professor Stephen Leacock at a Liberty League meeting, and he denounced the Liberty League as being anarchistic in character and menace to the country.

GERMAN PROPOSAL IS IGNORED BY U.S.

Also Takes No Notice in the Reply of Suggestion for Unbiased Experts.

Washington, April 4.—Paraphrases of the informal exchanges between the German and United States governments regarding reparations, in which the United States holds Germany "morally bound to make reparation, so far as may be possible," were made public today at the state department. Describing the German communication as an "equivocal expression" of the recognition of that obligation, the United States reply expresses the hope that renewed negotiations which Germany says it plans to initiate, "may lead to a prompt settlement, which will at the same time satisfy the just claims of the allies and permit Germany (Continued on Page 2, Column 4.)"

Dangerous Classes

The last two classes were the dangerous ones, however. The first of these were the social opponents of prohibition, who use personal liberty as a cloak for personal privilege. The fourth and last was the group that represents the organized opposition of the liquor trade. No matter what smoke screens they use, he said, nor how many false colors may be displayed, when they were brought to court on April 18 next it would be found that it was the old pirate tankard of the liquor trade that was being fought. The real opposition to prohibition does not come from the (Continued on Page 2, Column 2.)"

GOVERNMENT TO OWN GRAND TRUNK SYSTEM AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

MAKES BITTER ATTACK ON AUSTRALIA'S PREMIER

Melbourne, Australia, April 4.—Mr. Fowler, nationalist member of the Australian parliament, is making a sensational attack upon the Hughes government and intends to move a vote of no confidence declaring that the dismissal of the government is necessary to restore responsible representation and end wasteful administration. Mr. Fowler is a bitter enemy of Premier Hughes.

Soviet Trade Missions To Stir Up Revolution

London, Tuesday, April 5.—An undated document, purporting to contain secret, detailed instructions from Nikolai Lenin, the Russian Bolshevik premier, ordering Soviet trade missions abroad to stir up revolution, is published today by The London Times. The document, which is signed "Butharin Berezin, for third international executive," and "Pavlov-Veltman, director of the council for action for propaganda in the east," says in part:

"Trade relations must always serve for communist propaganda. The primary object is spreading discontent among workers and soldiers, and

Will Take Over Railway by Agreement and Extend the Time for Report of Arbitrators—Will Probably Advance Some Money, But Not Entrust Spending to G. T. R. Officials—Developments Indicate That Condition of the Road Is Worse Than Represented.

Ottawa, April 4.—The railway situation continues to be the one subject of conversation on Parliament Hill. No announcement was made today by the government, although opposition members piled the premier with questions at the opening of the house this afternoon. Mr. Meighen contented himself with saying that some bonds of the Grand Trunk Railway Company fell due today, but he was unable to say whether or not there had been any default. The matter, he said, had been the subject of correspondence still in progress between the government and the management of the Grand Trunk Railway System. The government was not in a position to make any announcement as yet on the subject. However, the premier intimated that the correspondence in respect thereto would be laid on the table of the house.

To an opposition member, who had inquired whether his recent speech in Montreal meant that he contemplated turning over the National Railways to private corporations in the near future, Mr. Meighen smilingly observed: "The answer to that question is emphatically no."

So much for what went on in the house. At the railway department, Deputy Minister Graham Bell and a (Continued on Page 4, Column 2.)"
