

own ranks have fallen since our last convention; and our thoughts turn instinctively to the late Field Superintendent of the International Association, our beloved William Reynolds, who was with us at London last year, but who was taken to his reward a few weeks ago in the midst of his labors. In the International Executive at Chautauqua in August last we planned his work for the coming year. How little we knew that God had planned it otherwise. Let us all endeavor to catch something of his spirit and devotion to the work.

J. A. PATERSON, of Toronto, seconded by W. N. HOSSIE, of Brantford, moved the following resolutions, which were adopted:

1. That the President nominate a committee of fifteen, who shall nominate a Business Committee of twenty-five members, a Committee on Resolutions of nine members, a Committee on Registration of five members, and make such other nominations as may be referred to them by the Convention.

2. The Business Committee shall report to the Convention any changes that may be found necessary in the programme. It shall nominate a president, vice presidents, two minute secretaries, a General Executive and a Central Executive for the coming year, and attend to such other matters as may be referred to it by the Convention.

3. That the following rules be adopted for the transaction of business at this Convention:

(a) The schedule time of the programme shall be strictly adhered to. If any item is not completed when the time for some other item is reached, the latter shall be taken up. The Business Committee shall arrange a time for the disposition of any unfinished business.

(b) All resolutions offered shall be in writing. When a motion is moved and seconded, it shall be referred without discussion to an appropriate committee.

(c) No delegate shall speak more than once on any question, nor more than five minutes at a time, without the leave of the Convention, which shall be granted or refused without debate.

The President named the following Nominating Committee: H. P. Moore, Acton; R. S. Wallace, Hamilton; Rev. R. J. M. Glassford, Guelph; R. W. Clarke, Millbrook; R. J. Score and Mrs. Stanton, Toronto; Rev. C. L. Thompson, Stirling; Rev. L. W. Thom, Flesher-ton; D. A. McDermid, London; F. B. Holtby, Mitchell; George Rutherford, Hamilton; John Jamieson, Penetanguishene; Frank Reid, Simcoe; J. J. Woodhouse, Toronto; Dr. Tilley, Bowmanville; A. Day, Toronto.

The Committee retired, and the President called for reports from different parts of the Province.
