GIRL SKATERS' FLIRTATIONS MEET REBUFF

To Their Consternation and Confusion Find They Were Trying to Attract Attention of Two Young Clergymen

Having just a lovely time in their endeavors to get up an innocent flirtation with two skaters on Lily Lake two city maidens, who went out there Monday experienced a rude awakening that they are not likely to forget for some time. It was all a mistake, and a horrible one for that matter, for their romancing of the stalwart escorts for the return home was changed all abruptly to a hurried departure with not so much as a gentle wave of the hand to the graceful skaters.

The story in brief is that while two young women from the city were enjoying the skating on Lily Lake they beheld at the other end of the lake two gentlemen skaters. There, apparently was fun for the skating after, and after it they went. Nearing the skaters of the opposite sex they were surprised that the latter speeded in another direction. Every effort to getting within distance met with the same result.

Noticing the boots and overcoats of the gentlemen on the park pavilion they tied the boot laces into numerous knots and, turning the overcoats inside out, departed to watch results. It didn't work worth a cent, and the persistent females skated towards the "shoot the chutes" in a last vain hope, and they were gleeful as one of the gentlemen skated in their direction.

As he turned about they had a full view of his face under his cloth cap he was wearing pulled over his eyes; hearts stood still, they recognized a young city clergyman. Then his companion was also seen to be a fellow clergyman. The girls quickly removed their skates, hastened to untie the many knots in the shoe strings and fix up the overcoats, but they were not permitted to trip faces homeward before they were accosted by the clergymen whom they first recognized who asked quietly, "Now are you not ashamed of yourselves?" and they were.

NURSES ENJOY THEIR RE-UNION

Dinner in White's Last Evening — Toast List and Good Time Generally

The dinner given by the Graduate Nurses' Association last night in White's restaurant, King street, was one of the most enjoyable events of its kind this season. It was attended by about forty of the members of the nursing profession and all enjoyed it to the fullest extent.

The preparations were in the hands of the following committees, composed largely of the officers of the association: Mrs. W. O. Dunham and Misses Mitchell, Kellier, McCutcheon, Holt, Murray, Armstrong and Burns.

The president of the association, Miss E. J. Mitchell, presided at the table and Mrs. O. Dunham acted as toastmistress. The King being proposed all present joined in singing the National Anthem. The toasts then given were as follows: "The Nurses," responded to by Miss Mitchell; "Our Profession," responded to by Mrs. J. Henney and Miss Nellie Graham; "The Nurses' Association," responded to by Miss E. P. Hegan of the private hospital staff and Miss Alice Burns; and The Nurses' Association, responded to by Miss L. Hewitt, of the general public hospital staff.

The dinner was served in fine style, and in a manner reflecting credit on the new manager of the White Catering Company, Mr. Vincent. The ladies enjoyed a programme of dancing and music until midnight, the evening was spent in a "chance" pie, from which each of the nurses took a piece, reciting at the same time a short appropriate rhyme.

The evening was brought to a close by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

MRS. OSBORNE MAY LOSE HER LICENSE

Commissioners Looking Into Westmorland Road Case in Police Court Yesterday

As a result of the case in the police court yesterday morning in which a fine of $20 was struck against Mrs. Margaret Osborne, though not enforced, on a charge of having liquor on her licensed beer premises Westmorland Road, it is said to be probable that her license will be taken from her, unless she can explain her conduct in a manner satisfactory to the commissioners.

At the meeting held by the commissioners yesterday afternoon, the preliminary steps were taken to cancel the license, and Inspector J. B. Jones, was authorized to notify Mrs. Osborne to be present before the members of the board at a meeting to be held on the 28th of the month, when she will be called upon to explain. In respect to this charge, the law states under section 124 of the liquor license act, that anyone found guilty of an offence of this nature shall have his license cancelled.

The officers of the board will make an inspection of the premises of the saloon keepers in the city and, on the observations made in this inspection will to some extent depend the granting of licenses.

You Don't Judge a Book By Its Cover and You Don't Want to Judge a Range By Its Nickel

In looking for a Range, you will find plenty of them in all sizes, covered with nickel and away below the price of the plain ones. But nickel on a stove won't make it work any better. In getting a Range, you want to know what kind of grate it has, what kind of draft, how the damper is arranged. If the firebox is built in proportion with the oven, it has to last. If the stove will clean out right, if you can always get repairs when wanted, and many other smaller details, we have not room to mention. Our Glenwood Ranges are made to answer all these requirements, and we have placed on them just enough nickel to make them look right. Come and examine them for yourselves. Made in St. John.
