

ALWAYS SOMETHING BIG AT THE RIGHT PRICES

GRAND OPERA PRICES NEVER CHANGE HOUSE

MATINEES WEDNESDAY SATURDAY 25c BEST SEATS 50c

FIRST TIME HERE OF THE QUALITY MUSICAL COMEDY

A STUBBORN CINDERELLA

WITH HOMER B. MASON AND COMPANY OF SIXTY

Homer B. Mason as "Mac"

NAL PRINCESS THEATRE, CHICAGO, PRODUCTION UNDER DIRECTION OF MORT. H. SINGER

NEXT WEEK-DAVID HIGGINS IN THE GREATEST OF RACING PLAYS "HIS LAST DOLLAR"

Homer B. Mason, in "A Stubborn Cinderella," at the Grand this week.

A WOMAN SUFFRAGE STORY.

"The woman suffrage movement has some humorous aspects," remarked Homer B. Mason, the comedian who is featured with "A Stubborn Cinderella."

tall with fair hair, blue eyes and a creamy complexion. "At dinner time all the men on the boat, it seems, were panting for introductions. She knew it, too, and she led them the most amusing dance I ever saw. I think she had a hundred of them in love with her at the same time. She couldn't move an inch without a dozen or so around her. She became the talk of the ship.

"A crowd of mad women," said another. "Ugly old crones, looking for excitement," commented a third. And they characterized the women as senseless mortals, 'pitiful objects' and the like. "The lady drew herself icily aloft. "I'm so glad you are candid," she said. "You may be surprised to hear that I'm a suffragette and that I marched in a procession around London. "There was a tablecloth. A cold shiver, cooling all their ardor, ran down the backs of the congregated men. One by one they melted away, but before they had quite disappeared the lady stood on a seat and shouted triumphantly: 'Votes for women.' "And for the rest of the trip she received the cold shoulder, which provided a scene almost as comical as the first had been."

MR. FRED. JARRET. Present holder of the Canadian typewriting championship and who has won several medals in the world's professional typewriting contests.

ORGAN GRINDERS LAST TIME OF THE SEASON. The street-piano is silent for a time, but its melodious notes will ring forth, when the robins nest again.

FEAST WHICH GAVE THE BAIRNS A HAPPY NEW YEAR. Flashlight of the "kiddies" assembled in large dining hall and waiters who saw that they wanted for nothing.

DON'T MIND THE ZERO WEATHER. Leafy May Smith of Wright-avenue. Leafy is six months old and weighs twenty-four pounds.

DREAMING OF SUMMER'S HAPPY BROWSING-TIME. Deer in High Park, after the first snowfall of the season.

88000.0 Substanti with two for 30 yr. apartment. H. PRO ISS R Tariff Scare Bud E C PEERS F THE (Canadian LONDON of current the election-casts in T Unionists a majority The Liber government verse machi cles are ar The peer yesternigh speeches. lvely rece district, reform or that the received the swarded tha be introd The Duk West Yori ary princia Lords St meetings smith (two lvely. The fier quer visit be the ex who, he d taxes of B "We sol eigners, ne while our yearly, no "He got his what paid? Respect Lloyd-Geor signer in a good comm end, it w for which, got some fourth, we wa got for world the way of fa trade. Austen, great meet a message "Where B land will f Whinton- von, Rifeas mier, made maintainin obsolete. Sir Edwa declared f hereditary partisan. The seat price 48 Lib ist. BALFO Liberals P LONDON leader of tious, after parliament last momen and Sir H his seat. Bell has n Liberal par adversely b both Mr. land were r Parliame -tomorrow, is Laborite Unionists. ty in the s ats will r seats from WOMEN Thousands Ac LONDON -Every da begins a g will go fro length and trying to b voters' wh on one sid Every givng adv with voter in spite of continue t canvassing. As a par women war members of of London 18,000 voter London by the election to return t register th "The Ladies League rec voters from country. It is safe of the war to elect th rather to ment. Wh still an ope it is fair t beyond all tion. E The tend toward con of issues, a week ag lords or na the German Co