SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTERS.

Isobel Stormont, daughter of Sir David Stormont, a wealthy Scotch country gentleman, disappears without leaving the slightest trace. She was a quiet, retiring girl with only one distinguishing feature—a beautiful Titian hair, which had been a mark of the Stormont family for generations. Her fiancé, Basil Conyers, comes from London to aid in the search for her, and finally receives intelligence that a girl answering to her description has been seen with a band of gypsies. Guided by a gypsy, he finds Isobel, almost dead, in an abandoned dwelling. Her clothes had been changed, and when she recovers she seems to be another girl. All memory of her experiences has been wiped out by the privations she has undergone, and she begins a new life. Her character is quite changed, and she completely captivates Basil, whose affection for her herebefore had been of the cordially kind. In one of the pockets of her gown is found an old Testament, which Sir David appropriates, and he seems unexplainably perturbed over her disappearance. Various stories of the girl's experiences are circulated, and attract the attention of Evelyn Ashe, a fortune hunter, who meets her at a charity fête given at her home. Meanwhile Sir David extracts a promise from Basil that he will renew his engagement with Isobel, which is four months away. Then, to complicate matters further, Ashe saves Isobel from being run over by an automobile, and in Sir David's possession may contain a clue to the mystery of her seemingly dual identity. He skillfully arouses the girl's curiosity, while she is yet nervous and mentally unstrung over the disappearance of her portrait from its place on the wall. She searches her father's desk and finds the Testament. What she discovers written on the flyleaf throws her into a faint and another spell of illness. For the benefit of her health and of Sir David's the Stormonts go abroad. Ashe follows, and in Switzerland overhears the keepers of an English orphan asylum remarking upon the wonderful resemblance of Isobel to a runaway girl who had been in their care. He vainly attempts to force her to engage herself to him, and just after a painful interview she attempts suicide, and is rescued by Conyers. Having failed to coerce Isobel into a promise, Ashe attempts to extract money from Sir David by threatening to expose what he has learned of her past. Then Sir David writes a letter to his wife explaining the mystery.

"On the morning after the storm he found a body washed up on the sands—a woman's, with long light hair, blanched by long immersion in the water. It must have been washed down by the sudden spate in the river, after lying for weeks probably in some deep pool. There were some rings, a fine diamond one, among them, and a little brooch. He took them and buried the poor unknown body among the sand dunes. When he examined his prey, he recognized the Stormont device on one of the rings, and removed and preserved, chiefly, I think, the fear that he could not dispose of his prize with safety to himself, caused him to write to me rather than to inform the police. "My poor Marian, how can you doubt—there was Basil's diamonds, the plain gold signet with the Stormont oak, the little butterfly brooch—your dread of the Alder Pool has been too true. He took me to the place where she was laid. Better you can see her now," he said. "Marian, will you ever forgive me? I left her there. I left him in the belief that it must be some unknown vagrant who had robbed our child, and, since she had evi-

Directoire Coat Suit in Olive Green Velvet. Long coats are a distinct feature of the season's fashion. They run from 49 to 59 inch lengths, and these sent us from the other side have just a suggestion of fitting in the back. The trimming of these coats is extremely simple. In the costume illustrated both coat and skirt are broad trimmed, a wide hand-made braided outflung the coat with rows of soutache and narrow fancy braid arranged in bands and scroll patterns. It is on the vests of these coats that the trimming is lavished. Sometimes this vest is almost solid with braiding and embroidery. Again, as in the illustration, the vest is of a quaint, heavy brocade band or a dull gold galloon. The sleeves are full length and are finished with large mousseline cuffs, stiffened and braided trimmed. The hat is a green felt, trimmed with velvet and an enormous pompadour almost covers the crown.

Dr. Hamilton Speaks On Curing Pimples

Dr. Hamilton speaks on curing pimples. "I believe all skin diseases, such as pimples and eruptions originate through the failure of the eliminating organs to pass certain poisonous wastes from the body. There is at all times a large accumulation of foul matter in the system, which, if not destroyed, gets into the blood. Germs and disease producing matter are thus circulated through the body. Ultimately they force their way through the pores of the skin, produce pimples, swelling, red blotches and often eruptions horrible to look upon. "I usually found the primary cause to be with the kidneys and bowels—these organs are too slow. My Pills of Mandrake and Butternut contain very active vegetable extracts that act on these organs instantly. They give strength, tone, vigor to the eliminating organs that positively causes a clean healthy body."

British Paper Suggests That Lusitania Should Make Halifax Her Terminal. Montreal, Sept. 13.—The Canadian Pacific Railway Company R. M. S. Empress of Britain, which left Liverpool just twenty-four hours before the Lusitania, landed passengers and mails at Rimouski yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, exactly twenty hours before the mails of the Lusitania were landed at New York. Although not as fleet keeled as her sister ship, the Empress of Ireland, the Empress of Britain is a tempting rival of a fine one. Passengers traveling with the mails via the Empress of Britain left London last Friday and would be in Chicago tonight. Montreal, Sept. 13.—(Special)—The Star's London correspondent cables: Today's event is the Lusitania's effort to wrest the Atlantic record from Germany. The Canadian moral here is that, inasmuch as Halifax is 882 miles nearer to Liverpool than is New York, the voyage of the Lusitania proves what an absurd project would do for the empire.

Fredericton Hospital Trustees Give Her Full Control of the Institution. Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 12.—The hospital trustees held a lengthy meeting this evening to deal with the charges against Miss McCallum, matron of the institution. A committee, composed of Messrs. Alan, Barry and Randolph, was appointed to prepare a report for the consideration of the trustees at a meeting to be called by the president.

Speaking at London and Woodstock He Severely Criticizes Them. Toronto, Sept. 13.—R. L. Borden, Conservative leader, addressed two large meetings today at Woodstock and London. He defended the Halifax platform, and asked where the Liberals stood on the management of government railways by an independent commission and the nationalization of telegraphs and telephones. He said, with the exception of the Montreal Gazette, there was no opposition, that he knew of, in Conservative party to his public ownership proposals. At London the revelations of the Hyman election furnished the text for most of the speakers. Messrs. Cocksutt, Blain, Bennett and Macdonald, M. P.'s, are with Mr. Borden.

Sold at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by all medicine dealers or by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Proven Cure For Indigestion

A healthy stomach does two things. 1st—gives up enough gastric juice to digest food—and 2nd—churns food, by means of its muscular action, until digestive juice and food are thoroughly mixed. An unhealthy stomach is either too weak to properly churn the food or it does not give up enough gastric juice to make digestion complete. Then you have Indigestion—Heartburn—Distress after Eating—Sour Stomach—Headaches—and finally chronic Dyspepsia. "Fruit-a-tives" cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia because they give you a healthy stomach. "Fruit-a-tives" actually strengthen the muscles of the stomach—increase the power of the churning movement—and also enable the stomach to excrete sufficient gastric juice to completely digest every meal. "Fruit-a-tives" also cure the Constipation and Bloating with which so many Dyspeptics suffer. "Fruit-a-tives" are intensified fruit juices, combined with anti-acids—and are an infallible cure for all Stomach Troubles. Try them. 50c. a box—6 for $2.50.
