a crowd on the track obstructing the passage of the electric cars, and on going up found that a fight had taken place but had terminated some time before the arrival of the police. The officer said that Hammond used profane language in his hearing to another man and he arrested him. The prisoner stated that he was acting the part of the peace-maker, and claimed that another man in the crowd was guilty of the profanity. He was asked to pay $8.

Work on the new wharf now under construction by D. C. Clark is progressing very well. The first section of 250 feet is about 12 feet high and the second section is about 6 feet high.

The funeral of Mrs. Adam Macintyre took place this afternoon from her late residence, Rockland road. Rev. A. G. H. Dicker conducted the services and interment was in Fernhill.

Another fine day, and one, d. vet before the opening of Victoria link, which is an event econd only in the risk are concerned. The continues brisk, and every indication points to a highly successful opening and holiday. Vic tickets make great Christmas gifts for old and young.
