A Lad's Sacrifice
The Bishop of Chelmsford (Dr. Watts-Ditchfield), tells a moving story of the sacrifice of a Bethnal Green lad who had been reared in "an indifferent home." The boy wrote to his parents after he had been at the front for more than a year and said he expected to obtain leave. "About the time the lad should have reached home," said the bishop, "another letter arrived. 'Mother,' the lad wrote, 'I found a man near me very evil. I said to him 'What's the matter, Bill?' He said he had just heard his little girl was ill, and he could not go home and see her. Mother, I know it will be a great disappointment to you, but I went to my officer and asked him whether Bill could not have leave instead of me. So he will go home, and I will stay behind.' A few days later the mother received a telegram saying her lad had been killed while staying behind. That," concluded the bishop, "was a magnificent and noble sacrifice."

Freedom
The Boy—I shall be glad when I am old enough to do as I please.
The Man—And about that time you'll go and get married, so it won't do much good after all.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of Charles E. Ferris, aged ninety years, occurred at Robertson's Point, Queens county, on Saturday. The late Mr. Ferris was born at White's Cove February 17, 1827, and had been a member of the Jesuit Baptist church for the past sixty years. For many years he resided at fensse, but lately had been living at Robertson's Point. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Hannah Wason, of Cumberland Bay, Queens county, and by nine children, twenty-one grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. The children are Mrs. H. H. Rigby, Mrs. Alexander Abel, Mrs. George MacLean and Miss Addie Ferris, of Boston; Charles A. Ferris and Mrs. C. McGow, of St. John; J. B. Ferris, of Jernegan; E. B. Ferris, of Robertson's Point and Mrs. Charles Gunter, of White's Cove.

The funeral was held on Monday from his late residence. The remains were taken to Jernegan where interment was made. The late Mr. Ferris was held in high esteem by residents of Queens county.

Killed By Train.
Mrs. Williams of Spar Cove road received word yesterday telling her of the death of her nephew, Private Edward D. Watson, who had been accidentally killed in Newmarket, New Hampshire. He was a member of Company L, 8th Regiment, U. S. A. In company with another soldier named Smith they moved aside to let a train pass, but as they did they were struck by a train coming the opposite direction. Both were killed. Private Watson was eighteen years of age and was to be married next week. He left St. John about six years ago.

Blindfolded
In the St. Dunstan's Review, Sir Arthur Pearson tells of an interesting conversation he had with his old friend, Lieutenant General Sir Robert Baden-Powell, B. P., although he has excellent eyesight, makes a habit of doing many things as though he were blind. He blindfolds himself for regular periods, and "encourages his Boy Scouts to do the same thing, recognizing that by temporarily depriving themselves of the use of sight, they are enabled to cultivate the use of the other senses to a degree which is impossible so long as the eye is employed."
