HAVE WAGNER EVENING

The Epworth League of the Exmouth street Methodist church held its first regular meeting of the new year last evening when the programme was in charge of the citizenship committee of which W. L. Beville is the convener. The life and works of

Wagner formed the theme of the evening. Miss Maion Cooper gave a reading from one of Wagner's plays and Kenneth Lawton read a sketch of Wagner's life. Several musical selections from his famous compositions were given. Miss Doris Jones gave a violin number with Miss Isabelle Carr as her accompanist. A vocal solo was given by Miss Frances Withers as a piano duet by Mrs. Beville and Miss Mabel Sandell. James J. Hill, railroad builder, wanted to be a doctor, but had to go to work to support his mother.

Why Ford Predominates

Proof that Ford predominates is to be found in the fact that 50 per cent of all cars in Canada are Fords. Ford predominates because it supplies the essentials of adequate, economical transportation.

Ford has been the pioneer in the automotive industry; has blazed the trail in every fundamentally sound transportation principle.

Ford service is an outstanding example of Ford predominance. Authorized Ford service is to be found wherever motor cars are used—always capable, business-like and prompt.

More than 4,000 service stations in Canada are assurance of this.

For Home-Made Candies

CARNATION Milk adds richness to candies, as it does to other cooking. Use it wherever the recipe calls for milk or cream. It is just pure fresh milk, evaporated to double richness, kept safe by sterilization. It keeps. It is economical because none is wasted. Order several tall (16 oz.) cans or a case of 48 cans from your grocer. Try this recipe and write for the Carnation Recipe Book containing many others.

CARNATION DIVINITY FUDGE— $\frac{1}{4}$ cup water, 1 tsp. vanilla, 2 cups brown sugar, $\frac{1}{16}$ tsp. cream of tartar, 1 cup nuts, 2 tsp. butter, $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. orange peel, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup Carnation Milk. Put sugar, Carnation Milk, water, butter, orange peel and cream of tartar in a stew pan. Stir thoroughly until it begins to boil. Cook until it forms a soft ball when tested in water. Remove from fire; stir vigorously; add vanilla. Arrange half nut meats on a greased pan. Pour over them the fudge.
