Law Society Wants Action In Matter Of The Court House

At the forty-fifth annual meeting of the St. John Law Society yesterday afternoon action in the matter of a new court house was strongly advocated and it was decided to ask for a conference with the building committee of the Municipal Council. A committee was appointed to interview the Provincial Government and ask that in future justices of the peace and commissioners for taking affidavits be required to pass the same examination as is set for a notary public. It was decided to place either a brass tablet or a bronze tablet in the Equity Court Room in honor of those members of the society who had served overseas. The following members were elected to the council to serve for the ensuing year: Hon. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., G. C. Weyman, L. P. D. Tilley, K. C., C. F. Inches, H. A. Porter, W. H. Harrison, K. C., H. O. McInerney, J. H. A. L. Fairweather, C. F. Sanford, K. C.

Mother and Three Children Drowned In the Tusket River

Mrs. Edward Hatfield, of The Forks, Quinlan, Yarmouth County, N. S., and her three young children were drowned yesterday when a rowboat which they were in upset and threw them into the Tusket River. Mrs. Hatfield had been answering the call of two women to ferry them across the river when the children moved in the boat. She leaped over to touch them and the craft capsized. One of the women ran for assistance and the other has been missing ever since. She was traced for some distance into the woods but could not be found up to a late hour last night. The bodies of Mrs. Hatfield, one boy and one girl were recovered. The one missing is that of the other boy. At an inquest yesterday afternoon a verdict of accidental drowning was brought in.

EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM IN RUSSIA SAID TO BE NEAR COLLAPSE

Slow Death to Which Bolsheviks Have Reduced Nation Is Shown by Big Reduction in the Schools.

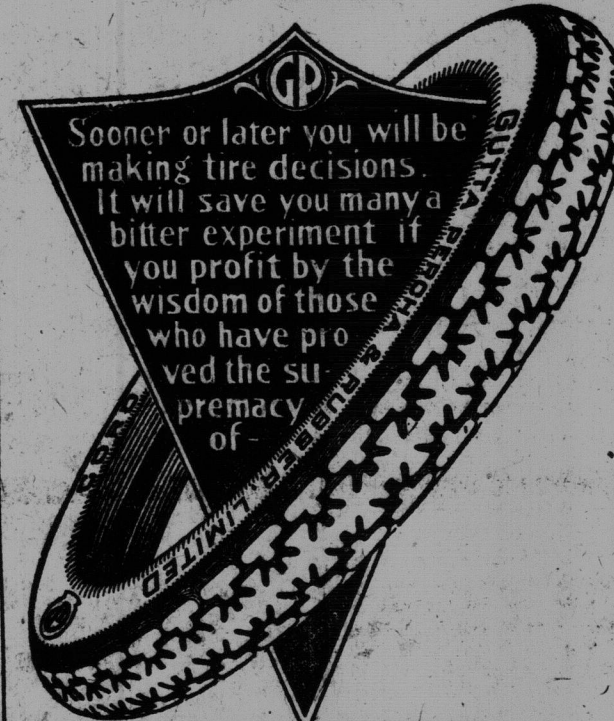

London, May 30.—(By Mail).—Hardly anything furnished such striking evidence of the slow death to which the Bolsheviks have reduced Russia as an examination of the condition of education in the country, writes the Warsaw correspondent of "The London Daily Mail."

Lunacharsky, the Minister of Education, has issued only one report since his ministry was founded. That report is full of admissions of the complete failure of the Bolsheviks' educational schemes, which were so glowingly described by many American and English pro-Bolshevik writers, but never carried out.

A school crisis followed. The report adds: "In April, 1922, there were 98,000 schools with 5,000,000 students. In October there were 85,000 schools and only 4,000,000 students. Primary schools showed a decrease of 80 per cent. Government financial aid for local institutions for children was so small that the children suffered hunger and neglect. In October, 1922, the government's courses numbered 900 with 22,000 students. There are now 246, with 14,000 students. Our whole network of political teaching," the report adds, "was destroyed when local institutions took charge of its financial maintenance. In the first year 28,000 reading rooms were open. There are now 8,000. Nearly 16,000 libraries existed then; now there are 8,000."

This is the closing night of the Hillman Bazaar, which is in the Carlton Curling rink and the attendance should be a record as the fair up to the present time has been far from realizing the expectations of its organizers, who have worked hard and with a good will. The prizes are to be specially desirable this evening and there will be a grand wind-up of the whole affair. A good time is assured. Last night the games were well patronized. The prize winners were as follows: Door prize, five tickets on the Jewett car, Horace Bodley; devil among the tallies, fancy ring, A. Dodger; six gun, men's prize, clock, W. Connors; ladies' prize, electric toaster, Mrs. P. Robinson; bean bag tray, E. Leonard; ring lost, smoking set, Harold Mayes.

OFFICERS OF THE CARMARTHEN Y. P. L.

At the annual meeting of the Young People's League of the Carmarthen street Methodist church last evening, encouraging reports were received and the new executive elected. The retiring president, Charles Styles, thanked the members for the co-operation given him during the year. An amount of $100 was raised this year and the balance of $35 on hand will be handed over to the church treasurer. The following officers were elected for the year: Honorary president, Rev. E. E. Styles; president, William Tyner; first vice, Charles Styles; second vice, Miss E. Earle; third vice, A. Merriasey; fourth vice, Miss Margaret Marshall; secretary, Miss Alma Roberts; treasurer, Miss B. Tyner; organist, Miss Gladys Styles. Fifteen new members were enrolled during the year.

A young woman in Charlotte street yesterday afternoon had a remarkable escape from serious injury when an automobile, driven by a woman, ran up on the sidewalk and grazed her skirt as she jumped for the protection of a doorway.
