OPIMUM OUTFIT IN POLICE COURT

Evidence in Case of Raid in Rear of Laundry Here Yesterday.

A great deal of difficulty was experienced in the police court this morning in finding an interpreter in a case against three Chinese, Hum Sek, Harry Woo and Hum Woo, in connection with a raid on the living premises in the back of a laundry at 57 Prince Edward street last night. The room bore a slight odor reminiscent of laundries, which proceeded from the smoking paraphernalia spread out on one of the tables. The collection included three opium pipes, four extra bowls for the pipes, a neat-looking Chinese tray, a package of opium ash, a vial of opium, and needles and other things used in preparing the poppy drug for smoking.
E. S. Ritchie, who appeared for the defense, said that Hum Sek was ready to plead guilty to having opium in his possession, and after Hum Ost had been secured as an interpreter to make sure that he understood what he was saying, his plea was accepted. He had a certificate in his possession, Mr. Ritchie said, showing him to have been an addict of the drug for twenty years. This was negated by a Montreal medical man. The others, Harry Woo and Hum Woo, pleaded not guilty to a charge of having been present when smoking was going on.

A dominion policeman testified that he had gone with Detective Sergeant Power, Detective Donahue and Policeman Saunders to the residence of Hum Sek, 57 Prince Edward street. They had a search warrant and entered the house. In a room at the back, where the defendant lived, they found the article in court. Hum Sek was sitting on the edge of the bed with a needle in one hand and a vial of opium in the other, while beside him on a table there was a tray with a lamp burning, and a pipe. The pipe was lit. Hum Woo, he said, was lying on the bed in a dozed condition, and the room was full of the fumes of opium. Harry Wood testified that he had been asked by Hum Sek to get him a chicken, and he had gone to the room to tell him he could not get it. He had been in the room only a few minutes when the officers arrived. He was a friend of Hum Woo, who was used for Hum Sek, and he had been in the city for about two years. The case was postponed until this afternoon.

Sergeant Detective Power and Detective Donahue corroborated this evidence, and the case for the prosecution was closed.

WILL KEEP THE BUREAU OPEN
Decision to Continue Employment Office in Place Provided by Bank Montreal.

A meeting of the general committee on unemployment was held in the Y. M. C. A. this morning, with a good attendance. Rev. H. E. Thomas occupied the chair, and Rev. J. C. B. Appel acted as secretary. A committee from the Rotary Club was present. Major Burroughs of the Salvation Army reported that up to Thursday, 645 names were registered—342 men and 103 women. There were 194 positions given out, of which 124 were men and seventy-two women. Of the 342 men registered, 408 have resided in the city for a period of three years or more, leaving only 106 late comers.

The question of the maintenance of an office was considered. Generous support had been given by the Rotary Club and Salvation Army, but the Red Cross quarters, which had been loaned for a month, had now to be vacated. The question of office supplies and a stenographer also have to be faced. After some discussion, the Salvation Army representatives volunteered to continue the work and take advantage of an offer by the Bank of Montreal to provide office space. It was felt that the public would come forward in providing office fixtures, and that some way would be found to meet the necessary financial obligations. The consensus of opinion of the meeting was that the office justified its existence, and many kindly things were said in appreciation of the work of the Salvation Army and Rotary Club.

BIG DROP IN THE REVENUE
Ferry Earnings for January Thirty Per Cent Less Than Last Year—Car Competition and Slack Times Factors.

A decrease of nearly thirty per cent in the traffic and revenue of the Carleton ferry for January as compared with the same month last year was reported this morning to Commissioner Bullock, of the ferry department, by G. H. Waring, superintendent of ferries. The decrease, in the opinion of the commissioner, was due to some extent to the policy adopted by the street railway company in having weekly car passes at $1 a week, which tended to switch the traffic to Carleton around by the bridge. The dullness of the winter season is also considered a factor.
The comparative figures were as follows:—
Passengers carried . . . 228,623 164,225
Passenger revenue . . . $3,109.95 $2,647.78
Teams carried . . . 11,725 8,699
Team revenue . . . $969.02 $840.30
Decrease in passengers, 64,398; decrease in revenue, $1,063.17.
Total decrease in revenue, $1,182.89.
