REV. W. H. WITHROW, D. D.

Resolved, that the best thanks of this Conference be tendered to the Rev. W. Withrow, D. D., for his generous gift of second-hand Sunday School papers, books, magazines, and other religious papers sent to be distributed amongst our Labrador fishermen and Newfoundland Sunday Schools. The luxury of such literature is highly appreciated by the fishing crews and recipients engaged in the trade of the country also on board H. M.S. of war and the poor generally who get them.

EX-PRESIDENT, REV. H. C. HATCHER, B. D.

That the best thanks of the Conference be given to the Rev. H. C. Hatcher, B. D., for the very able and impressive ordination charge delivered by him in Gower St. Church last evening, and that the Rev. gentleman be asked to allow the same to be printed in the Greeting.

DR. MILLIGAN.

That this Conference has listened with very great pleasure to the remarks of the Rev. Dr. Milligan, Superintendent of Education, and while it regrets that the physical strength of the Doctor prevents him doing as much in the way of travelling, etc., as heretofore, yet this Conference still assures him of its confidence and love, and trusts that God may long spare him to counsel, and still lead on in the educational interests of this land.
