Obituary.

There passed peacefully away last evening, at 185 South Park St., an aged and highly-respected lady in the person of Miss Jane Urquhart, sister of the late Robt. Urquhart, who for many years conducted a large grocery business on Spring Garden Road. Her last illness was only of about a week's duration, though for some time past her health had been gradually failing.

The death occurred, yesterday, at St. Theresa's Home, of Mrs. Anastia Hearn, aged 80 years.

The death occurred at Cambridge, Mass., this week, of Mr. Geo. P. Fisher. He was born near Dartmouth some 70 years ago. As a young man he went to Boston and did well at the stove and plumbing business. Mr. Fisher gave the Wanderers' Club the large megaphone which they still use. It was the first megaphone in use in Halifax.

The death took place this morning at 151 Brunswick Street, of William Hooper, aged 63 years. He had been ill for a long time. He was for many years in the employ of the old Halifax Gas Company and was highly respected by a host of acquaintances; he is survived by a widow, one son, Herbert, in Boston, and three daughters, two married, and residing in the West. He was a brother of George Hooper, in the employ of S Cunard and Co.

John L. Garvin, aged 47, a former well known newspaper man of Toronto and Montreal, died at Ottawa last evening.

Naples would be the Italian port, but the Canadian terminus have not yet been decided upon, although it is possible that they will call at both St. John and Halifax in winter, and Quebec and Montreal in summer. LAST WEEK OF SEASON.

Academy Players will present "The Lottery Man" as their closing attraction.

The Stock Company at the Academy enters upon the last week of their season in Halifax on Monday evening, and the management has provided the funniest of farces in which to have the players conclude one of the most successful and longest runs of a stock company in this city. From the pen of Rida Johnson Young comes "The Lottery Man," and its immediate success and long run on both sides of the Atlantic can be well understood, for hardly any two farces produced in the last twenty years has the capacity that this bright play has for laughs and screamingly funny situations. Mr. Toler counts the part of "Jack Wright" the young man who puts himself up for lottery, as one of his best roles.

Miss Mabel Craig will have the chance of her life as "Lizzie Roberts," the part that made a star over-night of Helen Lowell who originated the part in New York, and Mr. Horne will be suited as "Foxey Peyton." Miss Anna Doherty will be charming as "Helene," and the other ladies and gentlemen of the company will be thoroughly at home in their various parts. Mr. Lefevich will provide his usual handsome stage settings, and the production will be altogether on a lavish scale.

Saturday of the week will be a gala farewell day, and immediately after the afternoon performance, the members of the company will hold an informal stage reception to meet and say "au revoir" to their many staunch admirers. Sunday evening, speeches will be made after the second act, and special features to mark the farewell of the Players.

Nova Scotia woman's claim.

A Worcester, Mass., despatch of Wednesday says:

Justice Henry K. Brayley awarded to Mrs. Bessie Silver Lohnes of Northfield, Nova Scotia, the share in the estate of the late Asaph Silver that was contested by Cassie Silver of Cambridge. The will of Asaph Silver, who recently died in Worcester, made Cassie Silver of Northfield, Nova Scotia, a direct heir and residuary legatee of the estate.

The legacies were claimed by Cassie Silver, of Cambridge, formerly of Northfield, and by Mrs. Lohnes, who was a cousin of the testator and of the maiden name of Bessie Silver, and who has always lived in Northfield. Probate Judge Chamberlain allowed the claim of Mrs. Lohnes and appeal to Supreme Court was taken by the Cambridge claimant. To-morrow will be crocus day at the Wesleyville.

St. George's Society's banquet at the Queen Hotel, April 23, promises to be one of the best ever held.

Are your joints lame?

Haven't you a weak spot, a place where cold and inflammation always settles? Whether it is in the neck, side, joints or limbs—the cure is simple—a good rub with Nerviline and then apply Nerviline Porous Plaster. These great rubefacients invariably cure strain, swelling, weakness and muscular pain. There is no mystery about this. Nerviline is the most penetrating liniment known—consequently it gets where the trouble really is. Nerviline Porous Plasters are great healers and draw out congestion. Be sure you get the genuine, substitutes can't do the work.

—My trade in typewriter and pen carbons (all sizes) is increasing rapidly. Why? Quality counts.
